School Board to Ask State For Survey of Educational Needs in Long Range Plan

Bids on Consolidated School for Negroes At Setaek Opened

The Princess Anne County School Board will ask the State Board of Education to make a survey of education needs for white children in the county, and will draw up a five-year plan for school betterment, to be presented along with the outcome of the survey to a group of school patrons. In the meantime consolidation was shelved for the present.

The patrons were represented by a delegation of some 40 persons who met with the school board at a meeting on Tuesday to ask that body to consider a consolidated school for the Lynnhaven and Kempsville districts.

Princess Anne County School Board Chairman John B. Day told the petitioners that the board would like to see the schools in the two districts consolidated but that it would not be "appropriate" at the present time.

Mrs. Lewis Causey presented the consolidation petitions representing 400 qualified voters in the Kempsville District and some 100 in the Lynnhaven District—the two most heavily-populated in the county.

Mr. Day said that the county currently is negotiating with the Federal government on the relocation of the Oceana School, which borders the Naval Air Base at Oceana. He pointed out that the Navy facility is scheduled to be expanded as one of the major plans in the county.

The board, through Mr. Day, expressed its opinion that the consolidated schools in the Kempsville and Kempsville elementary schools should take precedence because of the pressing needs there.

Frank W. Cox, superintendent of Princess Anne schools, said that the board is waiting for a reply from the Federal government regarding the relocation of Oceana School as well as the status of an application for Federal funds totaling $300,000 for an addition to the Bayside School. He said that Bayside pupils are on the double shift through the primary grades. He explained that there are 1,400 children going there whose parents are government employees.

Mrs. Causey said the present plan for consolidation of the Lynnhaven and Kempsville schools would cost $2,500,000 or more. Also speaking in behalf of the merger were Mrs. George C. Lyons, Mrs. J. R. Bryant and Mrs. A. E. Ewell.

The school board also opened bids for the construction of a new Negro Consolidated School, near Setaek, and found that the low bid—$250,510, submitted by T. Gregory Construction Company, of Norfolk—was considerably higher than anticipated. The contract was awarded, but the matter was left open for further discussion. Last year, the voters of the county approved a bond issue of $250,000 for construction of a consolidated school for Negroes to serve several districts.

Plans for the school call for 13 classrooms, a cafeteria and needed auxiliary spaces.

OFFICER'S WIVES CLUB AT FORT STORY TO MEET. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

The Officer's Wives Club of Fort Story will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 7, at 2 p.m., in the Officers Club.

Mrs. John E. Adkins, of Virginia Beach, will speak on "Old China." Tea will be served following the program.

Two Basketball Games Saturday Night at Oceana

One of the season's outstanding athletic events will take place tomorrow (Saturday) night when a basketball double-header will be played in the Oceana gym.

On the ticket for the evening's play will be the School Girls vs. the Faculty Girls for the first game at 7:15 p.m. Second game is between the Girl Varsity and the Boys Varsity, playing girls rules, with the boys further handicapped by each wearing one boxing glove.

The Faculty Girls game promises to be all-American caliber. Faculty men will be in there as water boys, stretcher carriers and to administer first aid when needed.

Officials will be Mr. F. Strickler, principal, and P. W. Cox, superintendent. Both of whom have crossed their hearts that they will give a fair and square deal to all concerned.

In the cheerleader section are Mrs. Louise Osborne, Mrs. Frances Hodgins and Miss Margaret Bailey, all having spent long hours in practice and training for a good show. Despite boresomeness and some sneezes, they believe that they will make it.

The Faculty Girls line up is: Frances Farley, Connie Lovins, Joanne Farley, June Lyon, Ann Owen, Louise Duke, Jerry Sandage, Betty Whitehurst, Betty Sandage, and Betty Preston. E. E. Cox has served as the faculty coach, and Miss Ruth Corbin and Mrs. Julia Hodgins as assistants. The latter have been playing the faculty girls for the past (learning to keep score).

LAWRENCE LOCKWOOD—Affiliates With W. T. Jarvis & Sons

W. T. Jarvis today announced the affiliation of Lawrence Lockwood in his real estate and insurance business.

Prior to World War II, Mr. Lockwood was a member of Colonial Stores, Inc., and subsequently to service in the Navy during the war, he became associated with Baldwin Brothers and Taylor, Norfolk realtors. He served as first town manager of Virginia Beach.

MUSICAL PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT COOKE SCHOOL TODAY

"Our America," a musical play, will be presented Friday, March 2, (today) at 8:15 p.m. in the W. T. Cooke School auditorium by Mrs. DuVal's sixth grade and Mrs. Peterson's seventh grade.

The play tells some of the story of the life in America by bringing together music that was played and sung by the people as the country grew.

OFFICER'S WIVES CLUB AT FORT STORY TO MEET. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7

The Officer's Wives Club of Fort Story will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, March 7, at 2 p.m., in the Officers Club.

Mrs. John E. Adkins, of Virginia Beach, will speak on "Old China." Tea will be served following the program.

Back Bay Fisheries Survey Started by State Commission

Dr. Rosebery to Work With Commercial Fishermen in Area

Dr. David A. Rosebery, assistant chief of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries Fish Division, has started a fisheries survey of Back Bay, Virginia's famous largemouth bass water.

Dr. Rosebery is now spending time with the commercial fishermen of the area observing the methods of work and the types of fish caught in the huts.

Most of the work done in March will be concentrated on the commercial fisheries catches to observe the habits of the various species in the bay in an attempt to determine the relationship of the rough fish to the game fish. Knowledge obtained on the survey will be used in the future by fisheries biologists to obtain a more effective control of the rough fish and provide more effective management for the game species.

New Regulations Out in April

Requests for copies of the 1951-52 fishing regulations are constantly being received at the Richmond office of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries.

Officials of the Commission announce that copies of the new fishing regulations will not be available until April 1, and that the new hunting regulations will be available approximately one month later.

The Commission is required by law to advertise proposals for regulations, or changes in regulations, before it can set upon them. It was pointed out, so a certain time lapse must be allowed at the beginning of the year before the regulations are finally complete and printed copies are available.

Civil Defense Nursing Class at Oceana

A class in home nursing for Civil Defense is being started at Oceana Tuesday, March 6. It will be held at Scott Hall, Oceana Methodist Church.

Mrs. Tom Brathwaite, registered nurse, will instruct the class, which begins at 1 p.m. The course will be conducted in 30 hours of classes held on Tuesdays and Thursdays weekly. A certificate will be issued at the end of the course.

Those interested in attending the course are asked to call the Red Cross at 938. Persons in the entire area are invited.

HAYGOOD METHODIST CHURCH TO ENTERTAIN MEMBERS AT SUPPER

Haygood Methodist Church has invited its members to a covered dish supper in the Church Hall on Friday, March 2, at 6:30 p.m., in honor of the members who have united recently with the church. The members are invited to attend.

Supervisors Vote $250 for TV Set for Naval Hospital

Discussion of Roads Reveals Allocations, Secondary Addition

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors on Monday appropriated up to $250 for a 17-inch television set to be presented to the Portsmouth Naval Hospital, $3,000 from the Kempsville Improvement Fund for the Kempsville Athletic Association, and heard an overall discussion of the situation as applies to Princess Anne County's roads for the coming year.

Approved for inclusion in the secondary system of the county were 11.50 miles, in sections ranging from .40 mile to 1.30 miles. J. H. Phillips, resident engineer, said that tentative allocations for primary and secondary construction for 1951-52 amount to $200,000, of which $100,000 will be for construction of a four-lane highway—continuation of Virginia Beach Boulevard, and $40,000 supplemental allocation for bridge and approaches at North Landing Creek at Pungo to replace the ferry service which has been operating in the past. Mr. Phillips said that $75,000 had previously been allocated for this purpose.

The board approved the purchase of the television set for the Portsmouth Naval Hospital subject to approval of the legality of the expenditure by the Commonwealth's Attorney, W. W. Oliver, Jr., spoke on behalf of private citizens urging its purchase.

The board also approved an allocation of $500 for repairs to the abandoned Blackwater School county property.

Oceana P.T. A. Has Founders Day Meet

The Oceana Parent-Teacher Association celebrated Founders Day on February 20, at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium. Mrs. Frank W. Cox was program chairman.

A musical feature of the program was harp selections by Mrs. Robert Morrison, of Lynnhaven. Past presidents and P.T.A. presidents of the Oceana P.T.A. who were guests and spoke were: Dr. Ned Coker, for his father, the late John Coker, first president of the Oceana P.T.A. (1928-29), Mrs. Roy Dudley, Mrs. R. G. DePree, Mrs. Wallace Clark, Mrs. Hugh Simmons, Mrs. James Darden and Mrs. J. E. Garrett, and Mrs. L. M. Wilcox and Mrs. Charles Klitchings.

LIONS CLUB DONATES TV SET TO NAVAL HOSPITAL

The Virginia Beach Lions Club were the donors of a 17-inch screen Admiral table model television set to Ward D-1, Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

At presentation ceremonies, Leo Miller, who furnished the set, Bruce Thompson and R. A. Jones were present.

Wagner to Speak at Cooke PTA Fathers' Night Celebration

The Rev. F. Roland Wagner will be speaker at Father's Night Celebration of the W. T. Cooke Parent-Teacher Association, on March 5, at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium.

Well known as a speaker and lecturer, the Rev. Mr. Wagner has lived in Norfolk for 25 years, where he has been pastor of the Central Baptist Church. He is one of the best known after dinner speakers in the State and the most sought after speaker in the Tidewater area.

Mrs. Robert G. Wazley will sing accompanied by Mrs. J. Malcolm Beall. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Aubrey N. Holmes, president of the organization, announced that the regular board meeting will be held at 8:45 p.m. at the school on the afternoon of March 5.

Abernathy Seeks Seat in House of Delegates; Whitehurst Candidate for Supervisor in Pungo District; Ackiss Seeks Re-election

McClanahan Pledges Support for Simpson and Abernathy

W. W. McClanahan, town councilman, when asked if he would commit himself as to whom he would support in the August Primaries, said: "I am very fond of both Mr. Simpson and Mr. Abernathy. I have known them both for a number of years and have found them both honest and sincere. I am most happy to support their candidacy."

When asked about a break with the organization, Mr. McClanahan added that, "These men have been supporters of the organization for years. . . I am sure that they would promote the very best type of government for both the county and community."

Four candidates this week announced that they will seek office in the August primaries. They are: Robert Lee Simpson, for Commonwealth's Attorney; E. Morris Abernathy, for representative in the House of Delegates; Kenneth N. Whitehurst, for supervisor from the Pungo District; and P. W. Ackiss, Jr., for reelection as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Of the four, the announcement of Mr. Simpson, although rumored for some time, came as a surprise to the county. Since his appointment in 1946 as assistant Trial Justice in the county, his name has been closely associated with the so-called organization, the announcement was regarded as a sign of still other breaks from the fold.

Neither Mr. Simpson nor Mr. Abernathy indicated that they are being backed by any opposition force, although both endorsed the other in making their announcements.

Mr. Ackiss, an incumbent Commonwealth's Attorney, made his announcement at a meeting held on Monday evening at the Oyster Hotel for some 300 Princess Anne County women. At that time, other incumbent office holders and John V. Perkins, Organization candidate for Clerk of the Court opposing William F. Hudgins, also spoke.

Mrs. Whitehurst, in making public his decision to seek the supervisors chair, did not indicate that he was backed by either organization or opposition force, but it is understood that the incumbent, L. H. Vaughan, is expected not to run again for office.

Simpson's Statement

Mr. Simpson, in a strongly worded statement, declared that he was seeking office and charged that "the best interests of the people demand a change." He, with Mr. Abernathy, claimed the need for unity among independent candidates.

The full text of Mr. Simpson's statement reads: "Because of personal prejudice, together with other things necessary coincident with a man's offering himself for public office, it is not without deliberation that at this time I publicly declare myself a candidate for the high office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the County of Princess Anne, subject to the August primary. I have had and still maintain a high personal regard for the incumbent, P. W. Ackiss, Jr., but the issues now confronting Princess Anne County must govern; that is to say, the public interest and welfare transcend any and all personal considerations."

"In the past, I have seen an enthusiastic supporter of the dominant political organization in Princess Anne County, which boasts many fine men and women. In 1948, I sought and won, with the aid and support of this organization, a seat on the Council of the Town of Virginia Beach, of which I am still a member."

Easter Seal Drive Begins; Crippled Children Benefit

The 1951 Easter Seal campaign for crippled children began Sunday, February 25, Miss Lucy Mason Holt, of Norfolk, president of the Norfolk area chapter of the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, has announced. It will continue through Easter Sunday. Nearly a half-million letters of appeal, each containing a sheet of Easter Seals, are being mailed to families throughout the state.

The local drive is part of a nationwide campaign to provide funds for services to all types of crippled children and physically handicapped adults. Over ninety per cent of the money raised will remain in Virginia to carry on the Society's program of services throughout the State. Approximately 5 per cent will go to the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults to help carry on its program of research, education, and professional consultation.

The Kempsville Parent-Teacher Association will meet Wednesday, March 7, at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium.

Mrs. James A. Cantwell is chairman, and Mrs. Garland Barlow is co-chairman.

The Woodmen of the World Lodge, Berkeley Camp No. 48, will present a flag to the Kempsville Band. The presentation will be made by William Henry Harris, secretary and treasurer of the lodge. The band will be on hand to present a few numbers.

For some time, however, it has become increasingly obvious that there exist forces greater than the law itself. Despite repeated entreaties of many affiliated with the organization, continued lawlessness has been ignored, and it is, therefore, apparent to everyone that the best interests of all the people demand a change. COMES THE REVOLUTION

Little Alice in Wonderland did not have a thing on Little Alice in Princess Anne County. Things are really getting "curiouser and curiouser."

A revolt in the ranks of the local political machine, which was scouted at an impossible just a few weeks ago by members of that machine and their mouthpieces, has assumed proportions that no one would have dreamed of.

Robert L. Simpson's announcement that he will seek the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, while it had been rumored for some time, came as a surprise to most people. Long closely affiliated with the dominant faction in the county's politics, Mr. Simpson had been considered one of the machine's strongest men. His breaking away from the group which had launched him in politics and guided his first political footsteps was a brave thing to do.

News of his revolt was received at first with skepticism and considerable suspicion. But careful scanning of the statement he issued at the time of the announcement of his candidacy made clear that his bridges were burned behind him, that he could not turn back to the machine.

His condemnation was directed at the leadership of the group. Obviously it is to this same leadership that he refers when he says, "It has become increasingly obvious that there exist forces greater than the law itself," and adds that, "Despite repeated entreaties of many affiliated with the organization, continued lawlessness has been ignored." "Our respectability as a body politic hangs in the balance," he declares. "To recapture for ourselves the law and order to which we are justly entitled is an obligation of paramount importance, and since the existing policy is one of condemnation, our sole remaining recourse is the ballot."

Mr. Simpson has shown evidence of a hitherto unsuspected independence and fearlessness. He, and others who have joined the fight for good government and common decency who have joined in a common goal of ousting leaders who have shown all too well that they lead nowhere, must now band together to continue that fearlessness.

Let them put before the people the facts as they exist; let them show the people how they intend to cure the situation; how they will go about offering to the county the good government it needs and deserves. Let them state the issues involved, and what they propose to do about them.

It will take more than an ounce of Chanel No. 5 to get rid of the smell in this county.

It needs your help to carry on the work it has before it.

the courts of law a mockery. A thorough and proper prosecution of a certain class of offense has been abortive. Our respectability as a body politic hangs in the balance. To recapture for ourselves the law and order to which we are justly entitled is an obligation of paramount importance and since the existing policy is one of condemnation, our sole remaining recourse is the ballot.

"All things have a way of running their course. The opportunity is now presented for the people to unite and elect fearless men who will not be swayed by the very few persons whose influence works adversely to the best interests of this county.

"It is my sincere desire to serve the people of this county to the best of my ability of Commonwealth's Attorney, and if elected, I promise a vigorous and impartial prosecution of all who may be charged with violations of the law. I ask that an aroused public join with me in order that a more just and lawful administration of this county may be forwarded.

"At this time, I wish also to ask all of the people to support the candidacy of E. Morris Abernathy, who desires to serve you as a representative in the House of Delegates of Virginia. I am confident that he has the capabilities and qualities of leadership necessary to fulfill this office in a manner which will bring honor not only to himself, but to the people of Princess Anne County."

Abernathy Statement
Mr. Abernathy declared that he had decided to enter the race "at the request of friends and after very serious consideration."

He said: "It is my belief that this county is, and will continue to be, one of the fastest growing residential counties in the country for at least another decade or more. Because of such rapid growth and development there will be many important and troublesome problems to be solved, both for the county and for Virginia Beach."

"I believe that the interests of the people of the county will be best served by a change in the group who have dominated county politics for so many years. In fact, I firmly believe that the people should take back the power they own and use it for the benefit of the greatest number."

"I promise to fairly and honestly represent the people of the county to the best of my abilities, showing no favoritism to any group or class. I expect to give the people my views on all pertinent

Social Security Law Changed for Persons Over 75

The Norfolk Social Security office in recent months has received numerous claims from persons over 75 years of age who are continuing to work in jobs held by them for many years, according to J. A. Morrison, manager of the office. The new law, which became effective September 1, 1960, permits the payment of monthly benefits to these persons regardless of the amount of their monthly earnings or salary, provided they have worked long enough under Social Security to be insured. It was pointed out by Mr. Morrison that this new law only requires the equivalent of eighteen months work since 1950 for any one now 65 or older to be insured.

Undoubtedly there are many more persons in this area who are 75 years old and are steadily employed. These persons should file claims at once, or not later than March 1961, to avoid a loss since back payments cannot be made for more than six months before the month in which the application is actually filed. It is always necessary to file an application to get old-age insurance payments.

Until a person reaches 75 years of age he is not eligible for benefits for any month in which his earnings are more than $66.60. The earliest eligibility age for old-age benefits, in any event, is 66. Mr. Morrison also mentioned that persons who are 65 to 75 years of age whose wages are not over $66.60 per month should make application for benefits without delay if their employment under Social Security has been substantial.

Survival Under Atomic Attack

WHAT ARE YOUR CHANCES? WHAT ABOUT RADIOACTIVITY?

RADIOACTIVITY IS THE ONLY WAY INSURANCE SINK BY WHICH ATOMIC BOMBS DEFEAT FROM ORDINARY GUNS

In all stories about atomic weapons, there is a great deal about radioactivity.

Radioactivity is the only way—besides one—in which the effects of A or H bombs are different from ordinary bombs. But, with the exception of underwater or ground explosions, the radioactivity from atomic bombs is much less to be feared than blast and heat.

WE KNOW MORE ABOUT RADIOACTIVITY THAN WE DO ABOUT COLORED

Radioactivity is not new or mysterious. In the form of cosmic rays from the sky, all of us have been continually bombarded by radiation every hour and day of our lives. We all have also breathed and eaten very small amounts of radioactive materials without even knowing it. For over half a century, doctors and scientists have experimented and worked with X-rays and other penetrating forms of energy. Because of all this experience, we actually know much more about radioactivity and what it does to people than we know about infantile paralysis, colds, or some other common diseases.

It is easy to understand how radioactivity works if we think of how sunlight behaves.

INJURY FROM RADIOACTIVITY DEPENDS ON THE POWER OF THE RAYS AND PARTICLES, HOW LONG YOU WERE EXPOSED AND HOW MUCH OF YOUR BODY WAS HIT

In the northern part of the world, winter's slanting sun rays seldom cause sunburn, but the hotter rays of the summer sun often do. Still, just a few moments in the midsummer sun will not give you a tan or sunburn. You have to stay in its hot rays for some time before you get a burn. What's more, bad sunburn on just the face and hands may hurt, but it won't seriously harm you. On the other hand, if it covers your whole body, it can make you very sick, or sometimes even cause death.

In the same way, the harm that can come to you from radioactivity will depend on the power of the rays and particles that strike you, upon the length of time you are exposed to them, and on how much of your body is exposed.

On the first Arbor Day Nebraska planted over one million trees.

The official state flower of Arizona is the bloom of a cactus—the Giant Saguaro.

The band is a community musical organization and needs the support and interest of all.

W. T. Cooke School News

Mrs. Bradburne's first grade at W. T. Cooke School has just completed a health unit. In this study many health rules were learned and put into practice.

Much interest was shown in chart making, posters, scrapbooks, stories, story plays, weight and height charts, and many other activities.

The most pleasure was derived from viewing television and listening to the radio to learn commercials about the various foods, shampoo, tooth paste, juices, etc. As a final activity, a health play was given in the auditorium. The children were costumed to represent the various vegetables and fruits. Also, cereals, milk, butter, bread, tooth paste and brushes, egg, soap, water, outdoor play and a clock were there to tell of their importance in helping us to follow the many health rules.

King Health was on his throne to offer advice and to question the different characters as to their aid in helping to build strong bodies. At the appropriate times during the play, the commercials were sung.

Brownie Scout Troop 217 celebrated the registration and investiture of all members with a troop birthday party at the Chesapeake Beach Community House on January 25. A brief business session was conducted, during which the troop voted to contribute the day's collection of dues to the Chesapeake Beach Folio Fund Drive.

The investiture ceremony for four girls completed the troop. All members and leaders were active participants in this event, which was concluded with the Brownie Promise and Smile Song. Committee mothers and guests were presented to the Brownies by the troop member who had been elected presiding officer for the day. The president also honored each guest and mother with a small corsage, which had been a handicraft project at a past meeting. Each person then found his place at the table by means of a decorative name card. These cards had been created by the Brownies previously as a part of their training in manners and homemaking.

Four troop members, selected to serve by fellow Brownies, brought refreshments to each person. The group's enjoyment of cupcakes and ice cream was enhanced by the festive decorations. At the table, girls chose favorite songs to be repeated, and the telling of the past week's good Brownie-Deeds was fun for all.

The Brownie clean-up song and ceremony concluded a very happy birthday party. Brownies were delighted with the unexpected presence of snowflakes as they left the meeting place.

A sincere vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Richard Hines and Mrs. George Lyon, our committee mothers, who arranged for the refreshments, and to our guests, our deep appreciation for their presence and interest.

Pearl Duty, Stuart Mallory Married at Oceana Saturday

The marriage of Miss Pearl Duty, daughter of John Harmon Duty, of Buckingham, and the late Mrs. Duty, to Stuart Carlisle Mallory, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mallory, of Virginia Beach, took place Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Scott Memorial Methodist Church, Oceana. The Rev. J. Fletcher Osborne performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of white gladioli, snapdragons, white tulips and lighted candles. Mrs. Charles Hitchings, of Oceana, played the wedding music, and Miss Joanne Sterling, also of Oceana, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Herbert Duty, of Lynchburg. She wore a gown of bridal satin styled with a sheer yoke outlined with a satin bertha edged in lace, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, fitted bodice and full skirt topped with a bustle and ending in a long train. The finger-tip veil of French illusion was edged with a floral design of Belgian lace, and fell from a lace taria embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a crescent cascade bouquet of white French carnations centered with an albor orchid and showered with staphenotis. A single strand of pearls was her only ornament.

Mrs. Basil Wright, of Gladstone, was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of yellow taffeta under chartruse marquette, made with fitted bodice fastened at the front with self-covered buttons and a full skirt. She wore a headdress of yellow carnations and lavender sweetpeas, and carried a crescent bouquet of the same flowers. L. C. Mallory was best man for his son, and the groomsmen were Clifton Harris, of Oceana, Ernest Allen, William Robshaw and M. P. Coppedge, all of Virginia Beach. Miss Eva Mae Nee was mistress of ceremonies.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a gown of navy faille with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Mallory left for a Southern wedding trip following a reception held at Scott Hall, at the church. Upon their return they will reside on East Lane, Oceana. The bride traveled in an iridescent blue suit with a rust gabbardine top coat, black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Hot Cross Buns Add Spicy Flavor to Lenten Meals!

"One-a-penny, two-a-penny—hot cross buns; if your daughters don't like 'em, give 'em to your sons." So goes the old rhyme. But today there's no doubt about who likes these Lenten favorites.

Especially popular with daughters, sons, and all the family are Jane Parker Hot Cross Buns. They're made with a smooth blend of spices... filled with plump raisins, tangy citrus tidbits, and topped with crosses of snowy icing.

Landowners Get Assistance From Forest Service

Continuing the program of woodland management assistance to landowners in this area, the Portsmouth office of the Virginia Forest Service has announced that during the year 1950, a total of 182 free examinations were made of present or prospective woodlands at the request of the landowners. These examinations covered some 12,161 acres and ranged from inspections of proposed sites for the planting of tree seedlings to examinations of mature timber which was judged ready for cutting.

Following each examination, a written report was sent to the owner with the recommendations of the forester making the examination. These recommendations resulted in the marking and estimating of 2,545,000 board feet of timber judged ready for harvesting. In addition, 229 cords of pulpwood were marked to be removed in thinning operations, and in compliance with the Pine Seed Tree Act, 3,098 seed trees on 929 acres were designated by the foresters to be retained as a seed source to aid in re-establishing another pine forest once the original growth has been cut.

This service is made available to any landowner in Virginia and is attracting more and more conservation-minded owners every year. At the request of an owner, a trained forester will make an examination of the land in question, for which there is no charge, and submit a free report including his findings and recommendations on how to best manage the land from the standpoint of conservation and economics.

Marine Corps District Recruiting Station Seeking Officers

A dual program to obtain officers for the Marine Corps was announced recently by Captain Richard M. Remington, USMC, Marine Corps Officer Procurement Representative for Virginia and the District of Columbia. Captain Remington recently reported at Virginia Marine Corps Recruiting Headquarters in Richmond to open this program. The program includes the platoon leaders class program for college students and the new officer candidate course for college seniors and graduates.

The officer candidate course, the first in the Marine Corps since World War II, is open to college graduates and seniors who will graduate with or who hold a baccalaureate degree and who will be less than 27 years of age on July 1, 1951. Accepted candidates will be enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserve and will be sent to an intensive 10-week training course at the Marine Corps Base at Parris Island, S. C. this spring and summer. Captain Remington stated that he is now interviewing college graduates for the spring officer candidate course which begins April 23.

assistance on any woodland problem is urged to contact the Portsmouth office of the Virginia Forest Service on George Washington Highway in Cradock, by writing to Box 2007, Portsmouth, Virginia, or by calling Portsmouth 75931.

Virginia Artists Invited to Enter Art Exhibition

More than 1,500 Virginia artists have been mailed invitations to enter their works in competition for an exhibition at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts from April 28 through June 3.

Noting that the deadline for entries is March 1 for "The 13th Exhibition of Virginia Artists," museum officials said that additional entry forms may be had by writing the Museum in Richmond.

Eligible for the exhibition are original paintings and sculpture in any media, all types of graphic arts and creatively designed examples of the crafts in metal, textile, wood and pottery.

"Virginia artists are urged to present their strongest current work to the jury of selection to be composed of three nationally-known men in the art world," said Leslie Cheek, Jr., museum director.

The three jurors are Hermann W. Williams, Jr., director of the Corcoran Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., and two painters, Stuart Davis and Peppino Mangravite, of New York.

OCEANA High School News

Faculty Meets

The high school faculty of Oceana High School held its regular meeting Monday night. A statement of plan and progress for the year was discussed and committees formed to carry out the work.

The faculty voted against May Day for the current year due to an extremely heavy schedule. They felt it worthwhile but not enough time in the schedule to plan a good program.

Scholarships, awards, contests, camps, assembly programs, graduation, operetta, one-act play, senior play, band concert, and athletics were discussed and the following calendar was arranged:

March 3—Faculty vs. the high school basketball team and Boys vs. Girls game.
March 7—Radio broadcast.
March 10—Radio broadcast.
March 16—Operetta.
March 30—Band concert and Tom Thumb Wedding.
April 13—Senior Play.
April 20—Variety Show.
May 16—Senior Day.
June 1—Graduation.

Student Government Plans

Continuing efforts are being made at Oceana High School by the Student Government to promote each phase of the total schools program. Besides carrying out a number of aims the council also a planning to sponsor an assembly program, to draw up a handbook for use next fall, and to work with faculty in setting up a point system in the high school.

The council has taken an active part in two recent meetings held at Deep Creek High School and Creeds High School respectively. A committee composed of Skipper Hull and Peggy Wood was appointed at the Creeds meeting to draw up complete objectives for the Princess Anne County student organization for next year. The county group, consisting of 28 students and sponsors, was entertained at lunch by the Creeds Council. The meeting extended into the afternoon. Skipper Hull, Julian McDaniel, Peggy Wood, Marylewis Pock, Walter Whitehurst, Lillian Booker, Carolyn Meachum, Lorraine Cox and Paty Smith represented Oceana.

Beta Club Plans for Convention

Plans for attending the State Convention in Roanoke were made by the Beta Club at a recent regular meeting. The officers and several members of the club will attend. Juanita Aldridge was nominated by the club to run for State Secretary.

The members of the club have been selling soft drinks and candy at basketball games in order to send the dollars to the convention. Reports from the treasurer showed that this sale was going very well.

4-H Club Assembly Program

The Oceana Senior 4-H Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Geraldine Sandig, presented a very effective program in assembly on Wednesday, February 24. The theme of the program was "What are 4-H Clubs?" The club president, Buddy Orlin, presided. Audrey Morse presented the history and organization of the 4-H Clubs and Warren Bradley told of the achievement of the Oceana Club during 1950. Two musical selections were rendered by several members of the club. The club held as its special guests H. W. Zeln, county agent; Jack Brooks, assistant county agent; and Mrs. Jane Criss, county home demonstration agent.

Magazine Drive Successful

The magazine drive ended successfully Monday morning. After all receipts were in, the total sales amounted to $1458.60. The goal of $1200 was easily topped. Miss Gorman's homeroom of Juniors won the highest award. As teachers of the class, Miss Gorman will receive a travel clock and the homeroom will get a new radio to enjoy during the year. Many prizes, trophies and awards will be given to individual student salesmen. The student body wishes to express its appreciation to the patrons and friends who helped the school by subscribing to magazines.

Senior Class Selling Cards

The Senior Class of Oceana High School is selling all occasion cards. The proceeds from these cards will help to finance the annual. Everyone has been very helpful in buying these cards. The seniors are working very hard in an effort to make this year's annual one of the best.

Oceana Faculty-Student Games

The faculty of Oceana School will meet the girls junior varsity team Saturday night, March 3, at 7:30 p.m. This game promises all sorts of thrills and excitement. All sorts of "trick knees," back-scratches, strained and overused muscles and ligaments, and all other major ailments that come with real athletes.

The varsity squad will consist of Betty Preston, Frances Farley, Connie Loving, Joanne Sterling, June Lyon and Louise Duke. The faculty team will be Mrs. Helen Potter, Geraldine Sandig, Anne Owen, Betty Whitehurst, Mrs.

Baumans and Mrs. Applegate. Officials, according to Coach Cox, will be M. F. Strickler and F. W. Cox. Miss Ruth Gorman will be team manager and Mr. Broderick, assistant manager. "Tommy" Tomko, Frank Taylor and Billy Tarr will be water boys and "first aid applicators." R. H. Owen will be announcer for the occasion.

Mrs. Fletcher Osborne, Mrs. Frances Hudgins, Mrs. Bertie Holwell and Mrs. Julia Hudgins are cheerleaders. The public is asked to come out and support the two teams.

P. A. Farm Bureau Sets March 12-17 For Anti-Rat Drive

Every Family Asked To Join in Rat, Mice Poisoning Program

Get those rats!

The Princess Anne County Farm Bureau Federation is sponsoring an anti-rat campaign in the county during the week of March 12-17. During this campaign every farmer and householder is asked to cooperate 100 per cent in an effort to rid their premises of all rats and mice. The program calls for each family to put out a thorough clean-up and rat poisoning program during this week.

It is conservatively estimated that each year rat destruction equals the entire production of 200,000 farms in the United States, and if this is true it can be readily seen the amount of destruction that is going on in Princess Anne County due to rats and mice. This loss can be stopped and the Princess Anne County Farm Bureau has decided to start the move toward this end.

Warfarin, a new rat poison, has been found to be the most efficient and fastest of any product yet discovered for the purpose of destroying rats and mice. This rat killer can be purchased from dealers in this area either in a ready-mixed ready-to-use form, or straight, as the purchaser desires. Each farmer and householder in the county is urged to begin plans immediately to enter wholeheartedly in this campaign, and advised to purchase Warfarin at the first opportunity so as to have it on hand ready to use.

Ford Motor Company Entertains Officials Of Norfolk Plant

Approximately 150 staff and production supervisors of the Norfolk Ford assembly plant were guests at the Ford Motor Company Supervisory Dinner at 8:30 p.m. last night at the Cavalier Hotel.

Lewis D. Cruick, vice president and general manager of the company Ford Division, made the principal address. Other speakers from the company headquarters staff at Dearborn, Mich., were Walker A. Williams, Ford Motor Company vice president in charge of sales and advertising, and Max L. Wisniewski, general manufacturing manager of the Ford Division.

George L. Lemoine, manager of the Norfolk plant, was master of ceremonies. Guests included heads of several home office departments, as well as representatives of the Norfolk Ford District and Southeastern Ford Region sales offices.

The Dearborn party arrived via company plane late Wednesday. After inspecting the Ford plant Thursday morning, they were guests of the Commandant of the Norfolk Naval Operating Base for luncheon and a tour of the base.

The Supervisory Dinner was held to celebrate the Norfolk plants all-time production record of 91,370 cars and trucks assembled during 1950. Manufacturing plans for the coming year were discussed, Mr. Lemoine said.

John D. Leitch Jr., Appointed Assistant Trial Justice for County by Judge Floyd Kellam

John D. Leitch, Jr., was named assistant trial justice of Princess Anne County this week to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Robert L. Simpson from that post. The appointment was filed in the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County by Judge Floyd S. Kellam.

Mr. Simpson had received a letter on Wednesday from Judge Kellam dated March 6, which confirmed his (Simpson's) resignation as of that date. He said the reason for his resignation was his announced candidacy for the post of Princess Anne Commonwealth's Attorney.

In a statement, Mr. Simpson said: "I felt it was proper to resign as the assistant trial justice since it might appear to some that the position perhaps could be used for political gain. I wanted to avoid any appearance of using my judicial position for my own personal ends."

He explained that he had discussed previously with Judge Kellam his decision to resign.

Mr. Leitch, 33, Navy veteran of World War II, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Leitch, Sr., of "Wycherley," on the Lynnhaven River. His mother, Mrs. Mary Binton Leitch, is a widely known poet.

Mr. Leitch, a 1942 graduate of the University of Virginia Law School, passed the Virginia Bar in the Summer of 1941, shortly before his call to active duty as an ensign.

He and his wife, the former Miss Betty Kidman, of Australia, and their son, John David Leitch, III, make their home at "Wycherley."

County Red Cross Workers Named by County Chairman

25 Troops Active in County; Includes 132 Adults, 361 Girls

The Girl Scouts of America are celebrating their 39th birthday anniversary this month.

Since March, 1912, when Juliette Low brought Girl Scouting to the girls of the United States, this organization has had a proud history. For girls of Brownie age, through intermediate, senior and leader age groups, Girl Scouting has offered a pattern for happy and useful living.

Juliette Low became acquainted with Scout work when she met Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, the originators of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides in England. Mrs. Low started Guide companies in Scotland and London before she brought the Girl Scout movement to America. Girl Scouting is now an international association and has as its object "through cooperation to promote unity of purpose and common understanding in the fundamental principles of Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting throughout the world, and to encourage friendships between the girls of all nations." The Girl Scouts are non-political and welcome girls of all races, nations, creeds, and classes.

The first troop in Princess Anne County was organized in 1918, but it wasn't until 1947 that the 66 girls who were then troop members became members of the area council. This year there are 26 troops, including 132 adults and 361 girls.

Hundreds of radio programs will be congratulating the Girl Scouts on their birthday this month, including Jack Benny at 7 p.m. this Sunday over WTAR; Howdy Doody TV show at 5:30 p.m. March 12; and the Girl Scout Birthday Party at 1:30 p.m. on March 10 over WTAR.

Mrs. E. C. Mansfield is district chairman of Princess Anne Girl Scouts, and Miss Jean Baldwin is district director.

$11,125 Contributed by County, Town to March of Dimes Fund

A total of $11,125.97 was raised in Princess Anne County in the March of Dimes campaign held in January, according to an announcement by Mrs. J. D. W. Cassada, treasurer for the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. This sum does not include any funds raised by the Naval and military installations in the county, which normally add several thousands to the total. It is understood from newspaper reports that some $2,000 is forthcoming from Naval installations alone.

The annual election of officers took place at a meeting of the county chapter at which the final figures were made known. Mrs. Wallace Clark was reelected chapter president; Mrs. Frank Kellam, vice president; Mrs. C. J. Bounda, secretary; and Mrs. Cassada, reelected treasurer.

AFRICAN VIOLET SOCIETY TO MEET THURSDAY

The Princess Anne African Violet Society will meet at the home of Mrs. A. J. Keates, on 18th Street, March 15. Mrs. Kettie Minton will serve as co-hostess. Members are urged to attend to join in the discussion of plans for the violet exhibit which will be held at the Paramount Restaurant on April 11.

Brush Burning Law Prohibits Outdoor Fires Before 4 P.M.

Forest Service Calls for Cooperation on Part of Populace

The Virginia Forest Service announces that the 4 O'clock Brush Burning Law became effective March 1. This law prohibits the burning of brush or trash before 4 p.m. during the period March 1 through May 15.

The law was designed so that "brush burning operations would be carried on during the safer hours of the day—between the hours of 4 to 12 p.m.—when there is usually less wind and more fuel moisture, conditions of major importance in the control of forest fires."

The cooperation of all county residents is urgently sought by the Forest Service in this section. For the benefit of those persons who are not familiar with the Brush Burning Law, they call attention to Section 546, Chapter 26, Sub-section b: "During the period beginning March 1 and ending May 15 of each year, it shall be unlawful in any county or portion thereof organized for forest fire control under the direction of the State Forester, for any person to set fire to, or to procure another to set fire to, any brush, leaves, grass, debris, or field containing dry grass or other inflammable material capable of spreading fire, located in or within three hundred feet of any woodland or brush-land, except between the hours of four o'clock and twelve o'clock midnight."

Any person violating any provisions of this law shall be fined not less than ten or more than one hundred dollars for each separate offense. If any forest fire shall originate as a result of a violation of this section, such person shall, in addition to above penalty, be liable for all expenses incurred in suppressing such fire.

All forest fire towers have been instructed to report to the Forest Wardens immediately all burning operations. During this critical period of March 1 to May 15, Forest Service personnel will fly over the area at frequent intervals to check on violations.

Students Attend State DE Convention This Week in Richmond

Clarence Snyder, of Virginia Beach, president of the distributive education club of Oceana High School, and Mary Need, of the Kempsville club, this week attended the State convention of distributive education held in Richmond. The two clubs entered the State contests held at the convention—Oceana with entries in the display, poster, and manual contests; Kempsville in the display and manual contests.

Mrs. Maryann Moore, teacher of distributive education in the county schools, took four other students to Richmond on Tuesday to the convention. They were Don Burkes, Nancy Moxley, Eva Bowman, and Phyllis Godfrey, all of Kempsville High School.

Mrs. Moore explained that at the convention delegates from Virginia were named to attend the national distributive education convention.

Defense Training Course to be Held

A training course for the Ground Observer Corps of the local civilian defense setup will begin March 15 at the Community House, with Ivan Osborn as instructor.

The Marine Corps is furnishing slides for instruction. Interested persons are urged to get in touch with W. K. McDonald, R. W. Smith, or Harry P. Ames, who are heading up the Ground Observer Corps.

Need for additional volunteers was stressed.

Students at Oceana To Present "Betty Lou" March 16

An operetta, "Betty Lou," will be presented Friday, March 16, at Oceana High School by the students of the high school. The operetta is sponsored by the Glee Club of the school, assisted by the Dramatic Club in acting and speaking parts, in props, and in settings. The physical education department will also assist by providing chorus dances and dancers, and the home economics girls will do their part by checking costumes, along with Miss Purley, and also help in publicizing the operetta by making posters, etc. Bill Pritchard will be in charge of the tickets.

Miss Minton plays the leading role of Betty Lou.

"The story of the play is as follows: The Pendletons are in financial trouble. It seems probable that their ancestral estate will have to be sold. Betty Lou is the youngest daughter in the Pendleton family; twenty, pretty and determined. She is weary of her stepmother's attempts to marry her to a wealthy man and re-establish the family financially. Then Betty Lou finds out that another candidate is coming to see her for inspection. She passes as a ten-year-old, and many interesting and hilarious incidents transpire from this time on."

Girl Scouts to Hold Rally March 16 at Community House

Princess Anne County Girl Scouts will hold a rally at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, March 16, at the Community House gymnasium. All Girl Scouts, their parents and friends are invited to attend. Plans were laid for the rally at a meeting of county intermediate leaders held last week.

Each troop will "present the money" they have collected for the Juliette Low Memorial Fund. The flag ceremony will be presented by Mrs. Glenn Dill's intermediate troop. Mrs. E. C. Mansfield, district chairman, will give a welcome. Five year awards, first class awards, and curved bars will be presented to Intermediate Girl Scouts who have earned them. A movie on Girl Scouting will conclude the program. Mrs. L. F. Dickens' intermediate troop will serve as ushers.

Miss Jean Baldwin, district director, announced that a new Brownie and Intermediate leader training course will begin at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, March 15, at the Community House. All leaders who have not previously had the course are urged to attend.

Library Dedication Sunday at Haygood

The new library for the Haygood Memorial Methodist Church will be formally dedicated at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday, March 11. The Board of Stewards and the Board of Christian Education have unanimously voted to name it the Ewell Memorial Library, in memory of the late E. A. Ewell, who was for more than fifty years a member of this church and held all of the major offices. The pastor will speak on the subject: "Subjects for Christian Study." The public is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Slaven is chairman of the library committee and Mrs. Nixon is assistant.

COL HOLMES ATTENDS SPECIAL COMMAND STAFF COURSE AT FORT MEADE

Colonel Aubrey N. Holmes, of Virginia Beach, was one of seven Virginia Reserve officers who attended a special two-week command and staff course at Fort Meade, Md., which was open to reserve and National Guard officers. The course, given in three phases in successive years, prepares officers for high level staff positions in airborne, infantry, and armored divisions.

Getting Rid of Rats Conversation Topic In P. A. County

Campaign Now on To Exterminate Dangerous Rodents

Everyone in Princess Anne County is talking about the Rat Control Campaign that will start on Monday, March 12, and each and every farmer and household is being notified and urged to take part in this most important work, according to H. W. Odlin, county agent. Instead of holding the "Rat Control Campaign" for just one week, it has now been decided to extend it to March 31, thereby giving everyone an opportunity to rid his premises of destructive rats and mice.

Nearly $6,000,000 is taken out of farmers' pocketbooks in this State every year just to feed rats and insects on grain the farmers have grown. Mr. Odlin said, and if we will divide that figure by the number of counties, it will be noted that rats are taking nearly $60,000 each year out of the pockets of Princess Anne County farmers and householders. Most of this loss can be stopped, and the cost of stopping it is a very small percentage of the $60,000.

The rat is a clever customer and he will eat 50 pounds of feed each year if given half a chance; he may damage another 50 pounds or more. From a health standpoint, he is a threat to human beings and farm animals, since he often carries the germ of infectious jaundice, endemic typhus, and bubonic plague in man, and trichinosis in hogs.

To keep ahead of rats, two jobs must be done: (1) make it hard for rats to find food and shelter; (2) destroy them by using poison or trapping them, or both.

Before the poisoning campaign is started, the premises should be cleaned of all trash that might harbor rats. In other words, a thorough clean-up job should be undertaken before the poison bait is put out.

An emergency call is extended to every farmer, householder and business establishment in Princess Anne County to put on a thorough "Rat Control Campaign" on their premises from March 12 to 31. The Princess Anne County Farm Bureau is sponsoring the rat extermination program.

Mrs. Ober to Speak at Chesapeake Beach Women's Meeting

Mrs. LeRoy Ober, of Norfolk, will be guest speaker at a regular luncheon meeting of the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach on Tuesday, March 13, at 1 p.m., at the Chesapeake Beach Community House.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed and a group of Irish songs will be presented by the choral group of the club under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Newsome, chairman of music.

The program has been arranged by Mrs. T. J. Austin, chairman of the Fine Arts Department of the club.

Election of officers is on the business agenda and all members are urged to attend.

Hostesses are Mrs. F. L. Lunsford, Mrs. C. O. Smith, Mrs. G. S. Brown, Mrs. W. M. Harris, Mrs. Lewis Causey, and Mrs. E. E. Holm.

He was associated with W. J. Jarvis for five years, and before that was 16 years in the grocery business, at the Virginia Beach Grocery on 14th Street, which he owned.

Whitehurst, Candidate for County Treasurer, Joins Growing List of Aspirants

Town Councilmen, Officials Express Political Policies

Town Manager Only Official Not Aligned in Political Battle

Virginia Beach's town council, along with other town officials, this week made known their stand in the political battle that is being waged currently looking toward the August primaries when almost all of the county's elective offices will be filled.

The controversy was set off by the announcement by Councilman W. W. McClanahan that he would support the candidacy of Robert L. Simpson, another councilman, for Commonwealth's Attorney opposing P. W. Ackles, Jr., the incumbent.

Said Mayor W. F. Patton: "Everything I have obtained politically came with the help of the organization in the county and at the resort. I would be very ungrateful indeed if I abandoned the organization at this time." He added that he will "support and endorse the organization."

Much the same were the sentiments of the other councilmen, Halstead, Manson, Gregory and Barr, Town Clerk R. A. Jones, who indicated they would be "organization all the way."

W. Russell Hatchett, town manager, stated: "I do not believe the best interests of the town can be served by my taking any part in the political fight. Therefore, I shall not actively support any candidate or group of candidates for any political office. In face of persistent rumors I wish to emphatically state that I have never entertained any idea of seeking any political office in the forthcoming August primaries."

Alice Brewer White To Observe Fifth Birthday with WTAR

Alice Brewer White, fashion and woman's director of WTAR and WTAR-TV, is celebrating her fifth anniversary at WTAR with a Fifth Anniversary Easter Bonnet Tea Party on Saturday, March 17, from 4 to 6 p.m., at the WTAR-TV Building, 720 South Street, in Norfolk. Tea and pink lemonade will be served on the mezzanine.

The outstanding Junior women of this area will wear Florence Wilson gowns and Easter bonnets by famous hat designers. These hats will be air expressed from New York especially for the tea party. Mrs. Joseph LaGiglia will represent the Princess Anne County Junior Woman's Club.

Many Virginia Beach club women have been invited to attend. Presidents have received invitations for them and any of their members who would like to attend. They are: Mrs. Land, Senior Woman's Club; Mrs. Allen, Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Mergler, Business and Professional Woman's Club; Mrs. Leo Biley, Star of the Sea Women's Circle; and Miss Elizabeth Gregory Hill, Princess Anne Garden Club.

CAYCE TO BE GUEST SPEAKER AT MEETING OF LEGION AUXILIARY

Hugh Lynn Cayce, manager of the Association for Research and Enlightenment, will be the guest speaker at the March 13 meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 113, at the Legion Club House on Laskin Road.

Mr. Cayce will speak on Community Service.

Says People Entitled To New Leadership In Political Affairs

Willard F. Whitehurst, Princess Anne County insurance man, announced last week that he will run for the office of county treasurer in the August primary, opposing the incumbent candidate, D. Jonathan Vaughan. He announced that he has not affiliated himself with any opposition faction, but will stand as an independent.

Mr. Whitehurst said, "It is plain to see that the people are dissatisfied and are now willing, and even eager, to join together and bring about a change" in the county government.

In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Whitehurst said:

"It is my belief that the people of Princess Anne County are entitled to a new leadership in their political affairs. I say this because the small group which has dominated the county for so long has completely lost sight of the fact that the many are more important than the few. This, I think, is shown by the recent appointments."

"As a life-long resident of Princess Anne County, I have never taken an active part in its political affairs. I have, however, tried to maintain an open mind, and I have always voted for the man I thought was best suited for the job. Many of my friends throughout the county have urged me to seek the office of treasurer, and I now declare myself a candidate for this position in the coming election."

"I believe the people should have a full and free choice of who shall represent them. This is not a personal matter with me. I have at heart the welfare and progress of my county."

"I therefore ask the support of the citizens of Princess Anne County, and if elected, I promise to maintain this county office efficiently and to render without favor all possible service to the people."

The Pungo insurance man joined a long list of candidates who have announced their opposition to the dominant political faction in the county. The incumbent treasurer is D. Jonathan Vaughan and was appointed last year when Sidney S. Kellam was named director of the State Board of Conservation and Development.

Mr. Whitehurst is married and has one daughter, Joyce, a student at the College of William and Mary. He is a member of Tabernacle Methodist Church, a member of the church's board of stewards and treasurer of its Sunday School. A past master of Princess Anne Lodge 35, A. F. and A. M., he is also a member of John Walters Royal Arch Chapter, Grace Commandery 16, Knights Templar, and Khedive Temple.

Little Theatre Plans Tryouts March 12-13

The Little Theatre announces tryouts for the final show of the season, a comedy. Tryouts will be held at the Roland Theatre on March 12 and 13. Mrs. Robert Thurman is chairman of the casting committee.

The play is scheduled for production on April 23 and 24 under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Mearns. Allen Tyler is in charge of the production committee.

All persons who are interested in participating are urged to attend the tryouts.

THE RECORD

The Machine's candidates for the August primaries will stand on their records, according to a newspaper account.

Oh, boy! This is what we have been waiting for!
What record? Mr. Ackles' record in court when the indictments from the grand jury investigation of gambling and vice conditions in the county were tried? The record that shows open violations of the laws of the County and the Commonwealth? The record that special privilege is the order of the day for those faithful followers of the Machine?

The record of violence and death in the clubs of the County that the same record shows were never touched until enough publicity was given to them to cause a token raid? The record of armed robbery, both reported and unreported? The record of special grand juries which failed to indict when evidence was given them? The record of the boastful gangster who says that "we don't bother with paying off . . . we go straight to the head man?" (and incidentally has never yet been touched.)

Wow! What a record!

YOU MADE ME WHAT I AM TODAY—TRA, LA, LA, LA

"Everything I have obtained politically came with the help of the Organization in the County and at the resort. I would be very ungrateful indeed if I abandoned the Organization at this time." This is the Mayor of Virginia Beach talking.

"I have no fight with anybody—I'm not mad with anybody." This is the Vice Mayor talking.

"The Organization all the way . . ." That is the idea expressed by councilmen Barr, Manson and Gregory, and Town Treasurer Jones.
These statements were occasioned by the announcement that another councilman, W. W. McClanan, would support the candidacy of Robert L. Simpson, erstwhile Machine-man, for Commonwealth's Attorney.

These sentiments, although long suspected, had never been committed to paper before, and since there has been no hint of lawsuit against the paper which printed them, it appears that they truly express the sentiments of the men to whom they are credited.

These men are our elected officers. These men are supposedly the servants of the people whom they are bound by honor to serve.
Yet they appear in public print pledging their allegiance and support, not to the people, but to the machine that has put them where they are—the machine which tolerates not so much as one lot of deviation from its machine dictates.

What do they mean, "the Organization all the way?" What do they mean when they say that it would be "ungrateful indeed if I abandoned the Organization at this time?"

Does it mean that rather than the people, these men whom we elected to office have pledged themselves to serve the Machine, right or wrong?

Have they so blinded themselves with this misguided allegiance that they cannot see about them the signs of malignancy in the government of the county? Can they fail to see that their precious machine has allowed to continue subservience to vice and corruption, and the prostitution of government for personal gain?

Billy Dawn, in the Broadway play, "Born Yesterday," said something like this: "If you see a house on fire and call the fire department, so who are you double-crossing? the fire?"

If a duly elected official sees no hope of curing the corporate ills by any other means than recourse to the polls, who is he double-crossing? The answer is: Not the people!

Tragic Accident Claims Life of Guy W. Capps

Guy W. Capps, of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, lost his life in a tragic accident on Tuesday evening when his automobile hurtled from a Norfolk and Western Railway Company pier into the Eastern Branch of the Elizabeth River.

News of the death by drowning of the prominent produce broker spread rapidly, and friends and business associates hurried to the scene of the tragedy where efforts to raise the car containing the body were going ahead. The accident occurred at approximately 6 p.m.; the automobile was lifted out of the water at midnight.

Mr. Capps has long been recognized as one of the largest handlers of produce in the Tidewater area, and was one of the principal backers of the Euclid packing center.

Mr. Capps is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hazel Dudley Capps;
by one daughter, Mrs. R. Stanley
Hudgins; and one sister, Mrs. J.
C. Dale, of Washington.

He was a member of the Princess Anne Country Club and the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club.
He engaged actively in the work of Charity Methodist Church for many years.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday at the H. D. Oliver
Funeral Home by the Rev. R. A.
Craig, pastor of Charity Methodist Church, and the Rev. H. F. Justice and the Rev. J. W. Mast, former pastors of the church. Burial was in the Charity Church Cemetery.

Forest Service Asks Quick Application For Pine Seedlings

The Portsmouth office of the Virginia Forest Service urges that farmers put in applications for loblolly pine seedlings without delay, if they have not already done so. The number of requests received for these seedlings already indicates a busy tree planting spring and the available stocks may become exhausted, the office explained.

This district, which comprises the six counties of Princess Anne, Accomack, Isle of Wight, Nansemond, Norfolk and Northampton, has been allotted 200,000 loblolly pine seedlings out of the State total of an estimated four million produced in the forest tree nursery at Camp Peary, Williamsburg. This allotment is based on averages of the past years, but already a number of the 200,000 seedlings have been purchased by landowners.

These tree seedlings are to be planted where they will be of the most benefit, either to combat erosion by wind and water, as a windbreak, or on a wet or otherwise undesirable piece of property which is not suitable for agricultural crops. These seedlings are not to be planted as ornamentals under any circumstances.

Those interested in planting seedlings can secure application blanks from the Forest Service office in Cradock or from the county agents or soil conservation offices. A trained forester will make an examination of any proposed planting site and submit a report to the landowner of his recommendation. There is no charge for this service.

The fee is $3.00 per 1000 seedlings, and applications should be sent without delay to Box 2007,
Cradock, Portsmouth, or call
Portsmouth 75931.

Princess Anne County, Virginia
Virginia Beach
March 3, 1951

To Whom It May Concern:

Is it not crystal clear to any thinking person over twelve who has resided in this county for six months or more that "of the people, by the people, for the people" is currently translated in the language of Princess Anne "of the KELLAMS, by the KELLAMS, for the KELLAMS?" The sole issue, therefore, in the forthcoming primary elections is DEMOCRACY vs. KELLOCRAZY. It is rule of the people against rule of the KELLAMS. Their MACHINE, not individuals, holds public office in the five magisterial districts of this historic and resourcefully rich governmental unit. The term "machine" is used, rather than "organization," advisedly. Politically speaking, a machine is an organization which has become so heady with success that it has ripped out the breaks. "Since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary" in every country and clime, machine politics has lead to unbridled power which in turn breeds licence—never enlightened exploitation as is often claimed.

The PRINCESS ANNE MACHINE dominates every official position in the Town of Virginia Beach and County, except for one or two by those who recently, in true Frankensteinian style, turned on their maker. It is the system, not the Charlie McCarthys and Mortimer Snerds, that is vicious. Were it a case of the Smith Brothers rather than the KELLAM BROTHERS a change of one's brand of cough drops would be indicated. Broadly, in true Al Smithian style, "Let's look at the record":

Princess Anne County is a vice-ridden community running the gamut from bingo and slot machines to tea girls and fig leaves—from T- to T-ease. These vice dens have spawned bank and other shortages, unsolved big time stick-ups and at least four murders. Despite the pressure of part of the local press, the MACHINE-made Grand Jury hearings last Summer brought in, with token exceptions, only minnows and not the obviously abundant school of man-eating sharks which arrogantly continued their depredations. On trial, the proportionately few minnows became legal Houdinis. The simplest cases of any to successfully prosecute—slot machines—with the People's Attorney pitching his "nothing ball," produced the amazing total of one conviction out of 25 indictments. The slot machine racket in Princess Anne County is as near a lock as betting, if "in the know," on a New York City collegiate basketball game—not only satisfaction, in addition safety guaranteed, and in some instances, when a nickel is put in, out rolls that dream Cadillac.

What did the MACHINE controlled and operated law enforcement body do about all this at the aforementioned trials? The police which were directed by the Judge to "northwest mounty" the slot machine offenders and bring them back dead or alive were put on the stand by the over-all defense attorney, brother of this self-same Judge, and to the beat of his Baton these minions (pronounced marionettes) of the law harmonized that insidious ballad, "For Amusement Only." Compared to this performance "mal de mer" is a belly laugh.

Are there any thoughtful citizens here that sincerely believe that the Princess Anne School system, with the exception of W. T. Cooke Grade School, which cries from inadequate equipment, is not operated in the interest of politics rather than education? Are there any discerning watch-dogs of the treasury of either Virginia Beach or Princess Anne County who are satisfied that their taxes are levied equitably and expended judiciously? It is well to remember that there are still vital civic queries resulting from the Virginia Beach Town Hall defalcations of Autumn a year ago, the answers to which are long past due.

What has KELLAM, Inc., done about these breaches by the taxpayers' trustees? There is no indication that it acknowledges their existence, much less makes any attempt to cure these civic pus pockets, despite the continued courageous attack by one of the local weekly publications. Even the admonitions of a few of its own coterie with newly awakened consciences have gone unheeded, except that for these converts it has meant the kiss of death.

To all more-than-moronic persons these conditions are as obvious and offending as a garlic breath.

More deadly than vice, court corruption, misappropriation of public funds and betrayal of the people's trust are the dispensing of largess, publicly owned, to fawning favorites and the bludgeoning with reprisals, or the threat thereof, of those who dare to dissent. Public office holders must be taught that in this county they are the servants of the people and answerable only to them, and not commissars or henchmen reporting to a single clan.

Nature's beach erosive cancer in this community appears incurable by mere man and doubtless we will have to live with it, best as may, but the civic erosion is a necrosis, which while malignant, is not true cancer, and the surgeon's knife can lick it. The patient, Princess Anne County's body politic, has been very sick for many years and is steadily growing worse. The diagnosis is apparent, though the cure will be difficult for both the patient and the doctor, Civic Conscience, but it is essential for the survival of each.

Irrespective of candidates and their declarations, in light of the foregoing, what possible real issue can there be in the Princess Anne County August primary other than DEMOCRACY vs. KELLOCRAZY?

Are we mice or men? Are we to continue on our hands and knees crawling or do we get up on our feet and fearlessly stand erect?

J. WILLCOX DUNN

An attempt to throw at least some small ray of light on the cure technique will appear in a forthcoming issue of the Virginia Beach News.

The Red Cross Needs YOUR Help Now

... when will you need the RED CROSS?

THE WIDE and far-reaching services of the Red Cross in wartime need no recounting. Nor do we need reminding of the million tasks so cheerfully undertaken for our veterans, and the quick, ever-ready aid in time of disaster.

But NOW, in addition to serving our expanding Armed Forces and continuing its normal day-to-day community activities, your Red Cross is mobilizing for defense:

- Training 20 million Americans in First Aid (including treatment after atom-bomb attack)
- Training 1 million women in home care of the sick
- Training at least 100 thousand volunteer nurses' aides for emergencies

Your Red Cross needs YOU now... who knows when you will need your RED CROSS? Give generously!

War is again reaching for the telephone

In these critical times, national defense is calling for the wires. The telephone needs of our Armed Forces, defense industries and government are increasing daily.

In addition, increasing amounts of the materials used in the telephone business—such as copper, nickel, rubber, cobalt, aluminum and zinc—are going into equipment for national defense. They are being used to build tanks, guns, planes and other equipment for our fighting men.

All this means that national welfare rather than personal needs must get first call on the telephone facilities we now have available and on the limited amount of new equipment we will be able to install in the foreseeable future.

Your telephone company will continue to do its level best to take care of civilian needs but sometimes it may be unable to provide service when and where it is desired. If your application for service should be delayed, we're sure you'll understand the reason why.

Teen Age Club News

Former President of Club Writes From Korea

The director of the Community House has received the following letter from Jack Werntz, first president of the Teen-Age Club, who has been in Korea since the fighting there began. Jack wants the name and address of any other former Teen-Age Club members now in Korea.

February 23, 1961
Somewhere in Korea

Dear Mr. Fantone:

I don't know if you'll remember me or not, but when the Community House was first opened, I was elected president.

Well, I happened to get a copy of the Virginia Beach News, and read the Teen-Age News. I see that quite a few of the boys from the Beach are in the service, and I was interested to know how many are in Korea. You see I'm in the 1st Cav. Artillery and have been in Korea since this fighting started, which has been almost eight months. I was stationed in Japan for seventeen months before coming over here.

I'm a gunner on a 155 Howitzer and really enjoy my job. My gun is credited with quite a few tanks and Chinese.

My enlistment would have been finished this coming September, but it looks like it will be extended for quite a while longer, until this is cleaned up over here.

In case anyone is interested in Korea back there at the Beach, here is a short description of it: the land is all mountains, and I mean mountains; there is one place where it's pretty flat country, which is around Seoul, the capital of South Korea; also around the North Korean Capital of P'yongyang.

The people are still in the stone age. Their houses are made of wood, straw and mud. Their axes and shovels are crude tools. About eighty per cent are farmers, and their chief product is rice. Very few of them have gone to school. Their only colleges are in their big cities, of which they have about three, Taegu, Seoul, Kyoung, are their big ones, besides Pusan, their biggest harbor and docks.

The weather is really cold in the winter. We had plenty of snow. The South isn't too bad, but North Korea is really cold. The rainy weather has started here already and we have hopes for an early Summer.

Right now we are pushing the Chinese back. In this last drive we have cleaned up quite a few of them. The 1st Cav. area is east of Seoul. Seoul has been taken for about a week now but the land to the east where we are, there are a few divisions of Chinese.

Guess this is all for now. If you can send me the address of any of the guys from the Beach who are over here, please let me know, as maybe I can contact them.

List of Red Cross Fund Workers Increased; Need for Funds Much Greater Due to Blood Program

Kellam Says Workers Striving to Reach Goal for County

William F. Kellam, general chairman of the fund drive for the American Red Cross in Princess Anne County, this week announced a partial list of the workers in the Kempsville District who will carry on the campaign in that section. He said that other names will be announced later.

Mrs. C. C. Hodgins, Jr., is general chairman for the Kempsville District. She will be assisted by:

Mrs. J. A. Barrett, Mrs. H. A. Culppeper, Mrs. J. C. Hodges, Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Jr., Mrs. Sam Hastings, Mrs. William F. Hodgins, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Meares, Mrs. R. L. Rea, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Davis, Mrs. Audrey Chism, Mrs. Herbert Eaton, Mrs. C. Maroulla, Mrs. Charles S. Deaton, Mrs. George Lyon, Mrs. June Wilson, Mrs. H. C. Isaacs, Mrs. C. J. Hiller, Mrs. E. B. Wright, Mrs. W. P. Nebbett, Mrs. E. B. Trueblood, Mrs. Howard Thomas, Mrs. Mary Missell, Mrs. Harold Jackson, Mrs. Thomas Land, Mrs. Walker A. Howren, Mrs. W. B. Culppeper, Mrs. Marlon Day, Mrs. W. W. Oliver, Jr., Mrs. G. H. Watlington, Mrs. A. B. Horstman, Mrs. J. A. Keller, Mrs. Claude Pentress, Mrs. C. H. Stitts, Mrs. J. R. Harrell, Mrs. E. B. McCoy, Mrs. Allen Brown, Mrs. C. C. Daugherty, Mrs. N. C. Cromwell, Mrs. R. W. Meares, and Miss Ann Pierce.

Mr. Kellam said that it is yet too early in the campaign to give figures of funds collected. Workers are entering wholeheartedly into the drive to make it a success, he said, and he felt assured that the added sum which has been set for the goal this year will be readily collected. He explained that the Red Cross whole blood program, which includes blood for Korean war casualties, caused the increased figure.

Guy Represents Beach in Florida Golf Tourneys

George (Buddy) Guy, Virginia Beach sportsman, has represented Virginia Beach and the Princess Anne Country Club in golf tournaments in Florida recently.

He participated in the International Mixed Scotch foursomes at the Everglades Club, Palm Beach, in February. In the last week of February he participated in the National Championship of Golf Club Champions at St. Augustine. After qualifying in the championship fight, he was defeated by Bill "Dynamite" Goodloe, U. S. Walker Cup player.

In March, Buddy will represent Virginia Beach in the Dixie Amateur Golf Tournament at Miami and the South Florida Amateur in Palm Beach.

Bill Saunders and Sister, Aline, to Open Eastern Shore Inn

Bill Saunders and his sister, Aline, operators of the Waverly Hotel dining room during the past summer and the entire hotel during the past winter, have taken over the Eastville Inn at Eastville, Va., and plan to open there in April.

The Saunders plan to refurbish and redecorate the famous old inn on the Eastern Shore and bring it back to its old glory as one of the better places in that area.

Both Bill and Aline have had wide experience in hotel and restaurant work, having operated places in South Carolina and Florida.

County Agent Says Campaign Against Rats Progressing

Good Cooperation Among Farmers And Householders

Rats and mice are having a hard time trying to survive in Princess Anne County this week, according to H. W. Olin, county agent, as all farmers and householders are putting on a war for their extermination during this week and the rest of March. This campaign, sponsored by the County Farm Bureau, is being called to the attention of all citizens through posters, circular letters, conversation, and news articles.

"It is hoped that everyone in the county will cooperate 100 per cent so that when the first of April arrives the rat and mouse population will be near the zero point," Mr. Olin said.

"Farmers and householders cannot afford to continue to feed rats and mice valuable food and save this food for the people of the world who need it so badly."

"Rats are the most expensive boarders in Princess Anne County and only careless people continue to board them free, so let's stop being careless and declare rats our public enemy No. 1 and launch an extensive rat-killing campaign that will really rid the county of this enemy. Everyone should keep in mind that rats spread diseases in addition to the destruction of food, so when rats are killed two ends are accomplished," the agent emphasized.

"During the campaign in Princess Anne County, arrangements have been made to have rat poison in a ready-mixed bait available at a large number of places so that it will be convenient for everyone to buy and use, and everyone should take part in this most important campaign of the year," he said.

Business, Professional Women Sponsor New Eastern Shore Club

A program on international relations was presented at the March 12 dinner meeting at the Normandie Restaurant of the Princess Anne County Business and Professional Women by Pearl Mallory, in charge of the program. A letter of thanks and appreciation for donations of toys and clothing was received by the club from the president of the Bugnesh and Professional Women of Italy. The club plans another shipment of cotton clothing and toys in the near future.

Tentative plans have been made for a games party, of which Mrs. Elizabeth Henehan was named chairman.

Mrs. Virginia Holland reported on the forming of a new club, the Eastern Shore Business and Professional Club, with 19 members, of which the local club is the sponsor.

A donation was made to the Sarah T. Hughes Fellowship Fund, which is set up by the national organization to help professional women coming into this country in getting established and furthering their education for their professions.

The State convention, which will be held at the Cavalier Hotel, May 11-13, was the subject of a discussion.

EASTER SUNRISE SERVICE PLANNED AT GRANITE CROSS AT CAPE HENRY

A luncheon service will be held at the Granite Cross on Cape Henry at sunrise Easter morning. The service is scheduled to begin at 6:31 a.m.

Chaplain Jennings B. Reid, chaplain at Fort Story, will deliver the sermon.

Supervisors Vote To Purchase Pipe For Water Main

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors, at a special meeting held Saturday morning, agreed to pay $22,302.32 for 12-inch water pipe which previously had been purchased by the Town of Virginia Beach for a water main in the north Virginia Beach area.

Water supply during the peak of the summer season in north Virginia Beach has been found inadequate, and town officials asked the supervisors to modernize the system. The present system was installed many years ago. The present water supply from the town limits to Fort Story not only is inadequate but is a health menace as well, the town contends.

Supervisor Walter Maher said the 12-inch main as far as 60th Street, which was believed to be sufficient to bolster the pressure to as far as Fort Story in the neighborhood of 80th Street. Mr. Maher said the main must be installed as quickly as possible.

Town Engineer Carroll J. Bounds declared that the Town of Virginia Beach will ask for bids and let the work of laying the main out on contract. He is at present working on specifications for the submission of bids.

According to Mr. Bounds, the town will be reimbursed by the county for the work of laying the main.

Marilou Shaffer Wins "Queen of Follies" Title

Marilou Shaffer, of London, Bridge, sponsored by the Russian Club, won the title "Queen of the Follies" in the competition held in connection with the Junior Women's Club's annual Beach Follies. Marilou wins a free trip to New York where she will be a guest at the Plaza Hotel. She is the daughter of Mrs. Genevieve Shaffer.

Marilou won the title by amassing a total of 19,625 votes.

Runner-up was the American Legion's entry, Gloria Johnson, wife of Police Chief Reeves E. Johnson, with 18,370 votes. Third place went to Shirley Richardson, Jaycee's candidate, with 11,850 votes.

Others were: Ann Norfleet, Chamber of Commerce, with 780; Eleanor Smedley, Community House, 2,897; Allegra Malbon, Oceana High School, 4,382; Nita Aldridge, Lions Club, 5,012; Marjorie Whitehurst, American Legion Auxiliary, 192; Jeanette Wilkerson, Creeds High School, 1,465; Evelyn Bell Mills, Business and Professional Women's Club, 6,871; Sandy Bounds, Virginia Beach Rotary Club, 3,900; Doris Harcum, VFW Auxiliary, 1,811; Pete Busley, Senior Women's Club, 679; Patsy Abernathy, VFW, 825; Jean Elswick, Kempsville High School, 1,928.

TB Association to Hold Annual Election Meeting April 5

The annual meeting of the Princess Anne County Tuberculosis Association will be held on April 5 at the Virginia Beach Protestant Church.

All who have bought Christmas Seals are members and are urged to attend this meeting. A board of directors and officers will be elected to carry on the work of the Tuberculosis Association for the coming year.

Mrs. E. M. Hardy, president, will preside, and there will be an outstanding speaker on the program.

Tuberculosis is still a major health problem—the last of the communicable diseases to be brought under control. A period every 15 minutes from tuberculosis points to the great need for research and attention to those who have contracted the disease.

Second Annual Antique Show to Be Held May 23

Galilee Woman's Auxiliary Again Sponsors of Event

The second annual Antique Show, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of Galilee Episcopal Church, will take place at the parish house, the Haven, May 23, 24 and 25.

General chairmen for the event are Mrs. R. B. Taylor, Miss Chess Hardberger, Mrs. J. D. W. Cassady and Mrs. R. G. Barr.

An added feature of the show this year will be an old kitchen, set up under the direction of Mrs. Rudolph Watson. Other attractions will include old and rare belongings of individuals as well as dealers consisting of furniture, china, brass, bric-a-brac, silver, glass, quilts and rugs. Old portraits also will be on exhibit.

Chairmen thus far named, in addition to the above, are Mrs. George T. Mullen, publicity; Mrs. A. F. Randolph and Mrs. Carl Forsberg, Jr., silver, china and glass; Mrs. M. B. Walker and Mrs. Florence K. Turner, portraits; Mrs. Louis Guy, luncheon; Mrs. R. G. Barr, dealers; Mrs. Henry Lühring, Jr., posters; Misses Sue and Anne Brooke, hostesses; Mrs. Ruth W. Morgan, telephone; Mrs. Carey Pennington, kitchen hostess; Mrs. John Tucker, property markers; Mrs. R. S. Crenshaw, sales table; Mrs. Earl Strole, Mrs. Hardy Cole and Mrs. Clinton Woodhouse, floral arrangements; Robert Shelly, house preparation; Mrs. Reginald Whitehurst, quilts; and Mrs. Robert Barco, tickets. Mrs. Roland Thorpe will arrange for a night watchman to be on duty for the protection of the exhibits.

All indications and expressed enthusiasm point to this year's exhibit being placed on a "must" list.

"Betty Lou" to be Staged at Oceana School Tonight

"Betty Lou," an operetta in three acts, will be presented by the Glee Club and the Dramatic Club of Oceana High School tonight (March 16) at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Betty Lou will be portrayed by Nita Aldridge, a junior, from Virginia Beach.

Other characters include Joanne Hughes, Fay Lee Green, Mae Coleman, Julian McDaniels, Edgar Parker, Walter Whitehurst, Ethel Halsey, Clavone McGrath, James Fogle, and Steve McDaniels.

The music for the operetta is under the direction of Miss Betsy Preston. Miss Connie Loving is directing the dramatic scenes and the dances are under the supervision of Miss Joanne Sterling.

Other faculty members working with the production are Miss Frances Farley and Mrs. Frances Hodgins, who head the costume and make-up committees, and William Pickhardt, in charge of tickets.

Annual Rose Show to Be Held May 19-20 At Cavalier Hotel

The ninth annual Rose Show will be held on the week-end of May 19 and 20 at the Cavalier Hotel, according to Miss Elizabeth Gregory Hill, president of the Princess Anne Garden Club, sponsors of the event.

Originally dates had been announced as May 12 and 13, but the lateness of the season caused the postponement of the show for a week in order that the roses might be at the height of their colorfulness, as Mrs. Hill said.

The show annually attracts lovers from all over the Tidewater area as well as the State, and nationwide attention is focused on the event.

Clough Adds Name to List Of Candidates for Board Of Supervisors in County

4-H Members to Attend Suffolk Hog Show, Sale

14 Boys and Girls To Enter Porkers In Competition

Fourteen 4-H boys and girls of Princess Anne County plan to attend the annual 4-H Market Hog Show and Sale to be held at the plant of Joe E. Harrell & Son, Suffolk, on Saturday (tomorrow) March 17.

These fourteen boys and girls have each fed out a pen of pigs which they will carry to Suffolk to enter in competition with 40 other pens from Isle of Wight, Nansemond, Norfolk and Southampton counties. The boys and girls are hoping to bring back the top honors to Princess Anne County.

The 4-H members in Princess Anne who have fed out pens for this Show and Sale are:

Creeds Junior: Danny Dudley, Jimmie Etheridge, Walter Ir. Nossy, Ira Whitehurst, Ken Whitehurst, and Alton Brock; Creeds Senior: John Dudley, Cecil Simpson, Dunny Borney, and Edgar Brock; Oceana Junior: Buddy Owens; Oceana Junior: Parker Reader; and Kempsville Senior: Robert Fisk and Steve Squires.

J. W. Brothers, assistant county agent, has done considerable work in this project, assisting each of the members in selecting his pigs to start the project, and supervising the feeding and other attention since they were delivered to the club members last December.

The annual Show and Sale is being sponsored by Joe E. Harrell & Son, Suffolk; P. D. Gwaltney & Company, Inc., Smithfield; and Smithfield Packing Company, Inc., Smithfield.

Other 4-H members and farmers in Princess Anne County are invited to attend the Show and Sale, as it is believed they can gain much knowledge in feeding out hogs by being present for this show, according to H. W. Olin, county agent.

Mrs. Mullen Reelected President of Bay Colony Garden Club

Mrs. George T. Mullen was re-elected president of the Bay Colony Garden Club at a meeting of the club held Wednesday at the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club.

Other officers elected were as follows: Mrs. Goodwin B. Jordan, first vice president; Mrs. E. H. Rinn, second vice president; Mrs. A. T. Douglas, secretary; Mrs. Norman Wilde, treasurer.

Directors elected from the membership to serve with the officers were Mrs. L. O. Clark, Jr., and Mrs. A. W. Baggett. Mrs. R. Lee Bonney was appointed ways and means chairman for the coming year.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. A. J. Conant and Mrs. Ivan E. Osborne.

The next meeting of the club will be held April 4 at the Pine Tree Inn, and will be a dinner meeting. Each member is asked to bring a guest. Newly elected officers will take office at this time.

OCEANA BAND TO PRESENT CONCERT AND TOM THUMB WEDDING ON MARCH 30

The Oceana Band will present a concert and Tom Thumb wedding on Friday, March 30, at the Oceana School. James Cantel, band director, and Mrs. Charles Hitchings will be in charge of the program.

Third Candidate Announces for Post Of County Sheriff

Carroll Clough, comptroller for the manufacturing firm of J. O. Wilson Corporation of South Norfolk, and a resident of Lake Shore, a new development on Lake Smith, yesterday announced that he will be a candidate for the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors from the Kempsville Magisterial District.

A former resident of Chesapeake Beach, Mr. Clough has resided in the county for 26 years. He is married to the former Mary Ellen Boyersmith, of Franklin, Pa., and both take active interest in the civic affairs of the county. He helped form the volunteer fire department at Chesapeake Beach, the first of its kind in the county, during World War II, and has been its president for two terms. He is a member of the board of stewards of Haywood Memorial Methodist Church.

Mr. Clough teaches handicapped children in their homes.

Mr. Clough will oppose the incumbent supervisor, E. I. Herrick, of Kempsville, for a seat on the board from the county's largest magisterial district.

A third candidate for Princess Anne County Sheriff was announced this week when T. G. Wise, salvage and used car dealer, said that he will seek the post subject to the August primary.

"I offer myself as a candidate because my long years of residence in the county and my direct connection with all the public had led me to the conclusion that I can perform this office faithfully and to the satisfaction of the public whose support I respectfully seek."

Mr. Wise said he announced his candidacy with the "realization that one of the most important offices in the county administration is that of sheriff."

He noted that "great criticism has been directed towards law enforcement in Princess Anne County," and added, "There is no reason why laws cannot be enforced with equal vigor in this county as in other counties of the State."

Mr. Wise said "the sheriff of this county should be a person who is fully aware of the fact that his principal work is the enforcement of the law."

Mr. Wise will run as an independent candidate against Roger Malbon, the incumbent, and Charles B. Upton.

"I have taken no sides and intend to take no side in any existing or future controversy between factions in this county," Mr. Wise said.

Mr. Wise, 67, is a native of Pamlico County, N. C. He married Lena Simpson Wise and they have a son, D. W. Wise.

The new candidate studied at Oak Ridge Military Institute and read law with T. E. Whittaker and John C. Davis, of Norfolk. He served with the Navy in World War I and was a Federal employee in the Department of Commerce, the Coast Guard and the Corps of Engineers until his retirement in 1936, when he entered his present business.

UNITY

A story appeared in a neighboring metropolitan newspaper recently which suggested that a committee is now at work in Princess Anne County which promises within two weeks to come up with a complete new ticket of candidates for the elections which take place in August. While the basis of the story is questionable, nevertheless, it gives a sense of foreboding of things to come if such a thought is being seriously considered.

It is true that in the county there is now a committee working to try to bring together a unification of opposition forces. Their instructions were to that effect; their duties end there, and certainly since any time did they include the bringing forth of an entirely new slate of new candidates as the news story intimated.

Such rumors of disorganization within the ranks of the opposition play into the hands of the machine in the county, which uses the word "factionalism" as one of its best weapons.

The opposition must not tolerate, not now or at any time between now and the August primary, factionalism to grow up within its ranks. At best, an opposition which has lain dormant for twenty years will not be too well organized, nor will it be able to present in its first growth a unified front.

It must, however, understand fully that its one objective at this time is victory over the forces which it condemns.

Here is how to figure it: The machine controls at least 40 per cent of the votes in a solid block made up of those who gain materially from machine control, along with others who are friendly with members of the machine and others who simply do not know the facts of the disruption of law and order brought about by 20 years of machine rule, nor want to know.

One hundred per cent minus 40 per cent leaves 60 per cent; and of that 60 per cent the opposition must have at least 51.

If factions grow up, if unthinking opposition groups spring up within the larger group, that 51 per cent will be split too many ways to win victory for anyone but the machine.

We have said before, and we emphasize it and reemphasize it: The opposition must be unified—victory must be its goal!

Personalities must not be an issue; personal sacrifices, the giving up of ambitions, will be called for. PETTY GRIEVANCES MUST BE FORGOTTEN, AND THE OPPOSITION FORCES MUST BAND TOGETHER.

MAX WILLIAM KRAUSE

The untimely death at 43 of Max William Krause, popular Virginia Beach policeman, has brought sadness to the many people who knew him as a friend and in the line of duty. Especially will he be missed by the hundreds of young people in whom he was so interested.

His work with the youngsters at the Community House was a measure of his service to his community; his ability to work and play with these boys and girls has been of great value to all of them.

Not only with the youngsters, but also with other community betterment has he been affiliated. He worked with the Joy Fund and with many other organizations; he took a part in the Folklies; and joined in wholeheartedly in many other activities of value to his town.

He will be remembered for a long time as a friend of his adopted home, and his passing will long be regretted.

POLITICS—WHAT'S THAT?

Reprinted from the California Publisher

The only people I know who can be on the winning side in a political election and still lose are newspaper people. The fellow who wins always believes he would have won without the newspaper's support, and the one who loses blames the paper for his defeat.

If a newspaper takes no stand at all, everybody snickers at the frightened little fence straddler. If it does take a stand it is trying to dictate public affairs. If it closes its news columns to the candidates, it is stifling freedom of the press. If it throws them open, it is a heel for limiting the space they can use.

If a newspaperman fails to attend five political rallies and listen to eight political broadcasts every night, he has a closed mind. If he attends the rallies and listens to the speeches, he is a spy. If he says hello to one candidate on the street, he is showing favoritism. If he doesn't say hello, he is biased.

If he supports five Republicans and four Democrats, he is a reactionary. If he supports five Democrats and four Republicans, he is a radical. If the candidate he supports is victorious, he just climbed on the band wagon. If the candidate loses, he is out of tune with the people.

Let one candidate buy an advertisement lambasting another, and the other immediately demands free space in the news columns to answer. Let the editor refuse, and the candidate immediately buys time on the radio to lambast the editor.

There are 60 or 70 candidates in the average primary election. They are all considerate of the newspaperman. They know he is busy at his office, so they wait to telephone him until he gets home.

The average newspaperman's record of telephone calls at home during a political election is five during a bath, eight during dinner, three during his favorite radio program, three while mowing the lawn, one while brushing his teeth, 11 after going to bed and four while shaving in the morning. He misses two that come in after he leaves for the office.

Before a political campaign is over, the editor of a newspaper, and its publisher, are ready for pistols at dawn. The only thing that keeps them from shedding one another's blood is that they cannot find any seconds for the duel. The reporters want to shoot both of them. This is because each one passes candidates on to the others.

Candidates who deal with the editor are always firmly convinced that he has mistreated them, and they always complain to the pub-

MAX WILLIAM KRAUSE

Max William Krause Dies Unexpectedly Of Heart Attack

Max William Krause, 43, popular policeman on the Virginia Beach police force, died suddenly of a heart attack early Wednesday morning as he finished the end of the midnight to morning shift. He was riding in a patrol car with M. P. Garrison, another patrolman, when he was fatally stricken.

A member of the police force at the Beach for more than three years, Mr. Krause had become a well known figure, active in civic work of the community, especially among the youth of Virginia Beach and nearby area.

In addition to his duties on the police force, Mr. Krause served as program director of the Virginia Beach Community House for the resort's Permanent Youth Commission.

He was a native of Youngstown, Ohio, but had made his home in New York City for a number of years before coming to live at Virginia Beach.

A veteran of 14 years service in the Army and National Guard, Mr. Krause first came to the Beach with the 244th Coast Artillery, a part of the New York National Guard, which was encamped at Camp Pendleton. He held the rank of first sergeant.

He was a member of American Legion Post 113 of Princess Anne County and the Tidewater Chapter, Police Association of Virginia.

He is survived by his wife, Stelane Krause, who resides at 307 21st Street; one son, Kenneth, eight; one daughter, Tanya Marie, five; his mother, Mrs. Helen Krause, of Astoria, Long Island, N. Y.; his father, Lewis Krasooski, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and one brother, Victor Krause, also of Astoria, Long Island, N. Y.

The body was taken from the Virginia Beach Hospital to the H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments in Norfolk, where rosary services will be held today at 8 p.m.

The body will be taken from the funeral apartments to the Star of the Sea Catholic Church for funeral services Saturday at 10 o'clock.

Those who deal with the publisher, complain to the editor. Those who deal with both complain to the reporters. The reporters just complain.

When election night comes, the newspaperman scoots around from precinct to precinct gathering election returns. Everybody at each precinct wants to know how the vote is going at all the other precincts, but they are too busy to help the newspaperman get the results at theirs. By the end of the evening he is ready for an asylum.

Newspapermen in Russia must have a happy existence. Just one set of candidates, and if they oppose the candidate, they get shot. Shooting saves them a lot of misery.

Mrs. Mayfield Bellamy Terry Dies Monday

Mrs. Mayfield Bellamy Terry, 83, mother of William Herbert Terry, Jr., died Monday at 11:30 p.m. at her residence, 391 30th Street.

Mrs. Terry, widow of William Herbert Terry, was born in Warrenton, N. C., and lived in this section most of her life. Her late parents were Thomas Marshall and Mrs. Virginia Mayfield Grover Bellamy.

She was graduated from the Norfolk Female College, was a charter member of the Norfolk City Union of King's Daughters, a former secretary of the Norfolk Women's Club, and a member of Calvary Episcopal Church.

Surviving, in addition to her son, are one daughter, Mrs. William B. Lebovich, of Norfolk; one brother, T. Marshall Bellamy, of Kempville; four nieces and three nephews.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments by the Rev. Edmund Berkeley, rector of the Calvary Episcopal Church. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Georgia Ailstock

Mrs. Georgia Hall Ailstock, widow of James Calvin Ailstock, and mother of Miss Harriet V. Ailstock, superintendent of the Virginia Beach Hospital, died Monday night at her home, Kenstock, London Bridge, Princess Anne County.

In addition to Miss Ailstock, the deceased is survived by another daughter, Mrs. H. T. Kennedy, of Warrenton, Ga.; one son, James Walter Ailstock, of Lillybrook, W. Va.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Ailstock was a member of Park View Baptist Church, Norfolk.

The body was taken to the Biennan Funeral Home. Funeral services were conducted at the Park View Baptist Church Wednesday. Interment was in Olive Branch Cemetery, Portsmouth.

GEORGE GORDON SCOBIE

George Gordon Scobie, 38, husband of Mrs. Ann Margaret Scobie, a native of Pittsburgh and a resident of Virginia Beach for three years, died at his residence, 53rd Street and Holly Road, Saturday at noon. He was a retired certified public accountant.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one brother, James Scobie, of Arizona, and a sister, Mrs. Robert Hall, of Westport, Conn. The body was forwarded from the H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments to New York City for funeral services and burial.

a.m. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Class in Leadership Training Started at Prince Charles Hotel

A class in "Leadership Training" was inaugurated recently at the Prince Charles Hotel, with Robert W. Whitfield, L.L.B., graduate and certified instructor of the Dale Carnegie Institute of New York as instructor.

Mr. Whitfield has other classes going in Norfolk and in Suffolk, and he hopes to be able to make the course a permanent feature at the Beach.

The course concentrates upon showing the student how to increase self assurance and improve human relations, and includes public speaking.

Among the students enrolled are Mr. and Mrs. James Kostasopoulos, Frank Atkinson, T. G. Adams, W. W. McClanahan, Jr., R. F. Trant, Jr., E. H. McCutcher, Ed Lindley, Jr., Benjie and Irving Morden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Forbes, Mrs. Mark White, Mrs. Edith Broughton, Mrs. A. Croonenbergh West, Miss Irma Bell and Miss Harriet Ailstock.

Mrs. Whitfield is the nephew of Mrs. Ella Whitfield, of 517 24th Street.

Mrs. Nita McManamin, of Linkhorn Park, is in charge of enrollments.

Federal Government Certifies $1,076,025 For County Schools

An Associated Press dispatch from Richmond last week stated that the Federal government, through the United States Office of Education, has certified a claim of $1,076,025 to Princess Anne County for school building help in educating children from government installations who attend Princess Anne County schools.

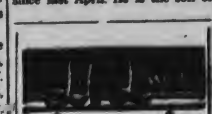

At a recent school board meeting, Frank W. Cox said that the application had been made. It is estimated that approximately 1,400 children in the county schools are from the so-called government connected families, and hence eligible for such aid from the Federal government.

Mr. Cox said that a $940,000 application for the Bayside elementary school had been made. The million dollar grant presumably covers that sum.

KITE FLYING TIME

is here again

let's keep it Safe

A BREEZE, a boy and a kite—that's the perfect combination for March fun. Kite flying experts—the ones who can give Dad a pointer or two—know that it's MORE fun when it's SAFE!

4 Simple Safety Rules for Kite Flyers:

1. Fly kites in an open field, away from power lines, overhead obstructions, and traffic.
2. Never, NEVER use wire, metal or metal string for kite line or tail.
3. Be sure the string is perfectly dry.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Don't climb poles!

and Call us—we'll be glad to help you get your kite back!

Brownie Troop No. 219 Celebrates Anniversary

Brownie Troop No. 219 celebrated the Girl Scout's 39th birthday last Monday at their regular meeting at 3:30 p.m. in the Community House. Also invited to the party was Brownie Troop No. 223 with their leaders, Mrs. Lewis Smith and Mrs. Fred Bonney.

Troop 219 held their Inauguration Ceremony on November 17 under the leadership of Mrs. I. H. Krueger, who was leader of the troop at that time. Since then, the Brownies have worked on six of the Scouting fields of endeavor. This spring the girls are looking forward to an out-door hike and cook-out and a tea for their mothers.

Troop members are: Ruth Ann Lamb, Anita Tolstoi, Gayle Clark, Brenda Clark, Joan Barco, Claude Tucker, Jacqueline Jacobs, Leah Dawson, Janet Smith, Nelsa Wilder, Carolyn Madison, Sherry Shaffer, Faye Coppidge, Kathleen Kist, and Joanne Kist.

Mrs. A. J. Barco is troop committee chairman, and Mrs. Gilbert Tolstoi and Mrs. Wayne Shaffer are troop committee members.

Mrs. William R. Graydon is leader of the troop, and Mrs. W. F. Robbins is assistant.

Guest Speakers of Club

Members of the Senior Girl Scouts Speakers Bureau were dinner guests of the Rotary Club at a meeting at the Cavalier Hotel this week.

Youth Fellowship Meet at Church

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of Princess Anne County held their regular meeting at the Creeds High School on March 4. They were guests of the South Princess Anne Charge. Glenn McClannan, of Beach Grove Church, presided over a very effective program in which the worship highlight was a play entitled "A Christian America." This was followed by a panel discussion in which each church was represented. The questions were chosen at random by the audience before the program.

The business meeting was presided over by the sub-district president, Edward Wright, of Oceana. The sub-district has made big plans for the future, of which the most important is the Methodist Youth Fund. This fund is used by the youths trying to obtain an education in college.

Refreshments were served after a short recreational period led by Peggy Wood, of the Beach Grove Church.

There were 123 members present, with the South Princess Anne Charge leading in attendance with 30 members.

The next meeting will be held at Tabernacle Church.

Chickens in the Freezer

If you're planning to prepare chickens for the freezer, you'll be interested in these tips from Harry L. Moore, head of the poultry department at V. P. I.

Mr. Moore says chickens that are fed so they weigh about three pounds at 10 to 12 weeks of age need no special feeding before they are dressed for the freezer.

Mature hens that are not in good flesh may be given a special fattening feed one to two weeks before they are dressed.

Don't feed fish oil or fish meal for two weeks before killing, as these products may give a fishy taste to the flesh.

Do not feed birds anything during the 24 hours before they are killed. However, give them plenty of drinking water. Poultry, like other animals, should not be excited before slaughter. Poor bleeding is one of the causes of a poor product, and unduly excited birds do not bleed thoroughly.

After killing, hang the bird by its feet with the head down until it is well bled.

The hard-scald is not recommended for birds that are to be frozen. Instead, semi-scald the birds in water of 126 to 130 degrees in temperature. Fryers and other young birds have a more tender skin and should not be held in the water longer than is necessary to loosen the feathers. Usually 30 to 40 seconds is enough although older birds will need a longer time. Pluck the birds clean; remove all pin feathers, and singe and wash the carcass.

Failing to cool the carcass thoroughly probably causes more poor quality poultry meat than any other factor. Unless a chilling room with a temperature of from 32 to 36 degrees is available, place the birds in cold water. A satisfactory method is to use a tub or barrel into which has been put water and a large piece of ice. The birds may stay in the cold water overnight. After the birds are clean and thoroughly chilled, they should be cut up or drawn.

William Garner to Manage Beach Drive-In Theatre; Open March 22

William Garner, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has recently been appointed general manager of the Virginia Beach Drive-In Theatre, located on Laskin Road.

Mr. Garner's experience in theatre management has been wide and varied. He began his theatre experience at the Fox Theatre in St. Louis, and soon became chief of service for this organization. He then became affiliated with the rapidly mushrooming corporation of Spyros Skouras, who now heads the 20th Century-Fox Film Corporation. After four years of service in the Infantry in the Southwest Pacific during World War II, during which service he was twice wounded in combat, Mr. Garner returned to the states. He served in U. S. O. productions in this country and in Europe, and then became booker and buyer for the Chakera Theatre Corporation of Ohio. To familiarize himself with all facets of the industry, Mr. Garner became film salesman for Eagle Lion Classics and for 20th Century-Fox Films.

Patrons of the Virginia Beach Drive-In Theatre will be happy to know that Mr. Garner's policy for future operations at the local drive-in will be to show the very latest and best films available; to afford clean, wholesome, healthful entertainment for the family; to maintain an attractive and inviting place of entertainment and recreation; and to render service to this community in a wholehearted spirit of cooperation.

On a recent visit to Virginia Beach, Mr. Garner was very highly impressed with the area, both as a resort of justifiable national fame, and as a delightful place to live. He will be setting up a permanent residence here within the next few weeks.

Mr. Garner announced that the Virginia Beach Drive-In Theatre would open the season on March 22, with a big double feature, showing Joel McCrea and Wanda Hendrix in "Saddle Tramp," in Technicolor, and Howard Duff, Brian Donlevy and Peggy Dow in "Shakedown."

Girl Scouts, Brownies To Celebrate 39th Birthday Tonight

All Girl Scouts and Brownies of Princess Anne County will meet at the Community House gymnasium tonight at 7:30 p.m. to celebrate the 39th birthday anniversary of Scouting and to turn in the money the troops have contributed to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. This money is used to build up Scouting all over the world.

All leaders, troop committee members, parents, and friends of Girl Scouts are also invited to attend the rally.

First class awards, 5 year pins, and Curved Bars, the highest award in Scouting, will be presented by Morris McKenney, a member of the Girl Scout District Committee. Mrs. Fred Bonney will lead the singing, and Carolyn Meachum, member of Senior Scout Troop 230, and twice winner of the Curved Bar, will give the welcome. Scout Troop 200, led by Mrs. Glenn Dill, is in charge of the flag ceremony. The ushers will be members of Troop 30, led by Mrs. Louis Dickens.

PETERSBURG COTTAGE IS REMODELED, REFURNISHED

The Petersburg Cottage, 307 27th Street, is open for year around business. The old annex to the Halifax Cottage, which was moved from a site on Atlantic Avenue to the present site, has been remodeled and refurnished by Mrs. William Allan Pace, who is managing the new Petersburg Cottage.

Here's How Your Tire Is Completely Enclosed With Steel Coils Embedded in Tread

Hardened steel coils are embedded firmly in the ribs of the Hawkinson Tread during the curing process. These coils wear through, as road wear progresses, preventing thousands of tremendously strong steel claws always on guard — ready to dig into wet, greasy road film, ice or packed snow — ready to deflect sharp ruts, potholes, bits of metal . . . Whenever the road conditions — summer or winter — HAWKINSON Wire Treads are more effective in giving better control, better

General Tire Takes Top Place In Road, Lab Tests

A General Tire and Rubber Company passenger automobile tire recently out-performed seven leading tire brands in the United States in a series of tests by an authoritative consumer research publication.

Results of the strenuous road and laboratory tests, which divided the tires into three classifications, were listed in the December issue of the magazine.

The tires were listed, according to the article, in "order of estimated overall quality." The General tire was listed at the top of the three leading brands.

Information concerning the excellent showing made by the General Tire was received by the Bell-Edwards Tire Company, local General distributor, in a wire from L. A. McQueen, vice president in charge of sales at General's plant in Akron.

"We are proud of the performance of our tires in these impartial road and laboratory tests," McQueen's wire read. "These tests, like other tests before them, have again proved that General tires are tops in quality."

Tread wear, carcass strength, "cut growth," and the extent to which the worn tires decreased mileage per gallon of gasoline were determined by the most rigid scientific examination possible during the research. All tires tested were "standard four-ply, black-wall, 'first line' tires."

The road tests were run along a 200-mile stretch of highway north of San Antonio, Texas. The sixteen tires used were tested on four late model automobiles purchased especially for the test runs.

These cars, the article points out, were "identical except for color; their brakes were equalized and each wheel and tire balanced before the runs began. They were loaded in such a way that with each driver in his seat and the gasoline tank half full, each tire carried 1100 pounds—a 20 per cent overload."

The cars were driven two round trips a day for a total of 800 miles per day. They traveled together as a group, never separated by more than one-half mile. If one car stopped, they all stopped. To check on the uniformity of the drivers, all of whom were experienced in this type work, the first and last cars were equipped with recording tachometers, which made a permanent record of speed of travel, and of the time and duration of all stops. To insure even wear, the utmost care was taken during the tests. Each tire was "shifted" so that it was run a total of 800 miles in each of the sixteen wheel positions. Total miles run during the tests was 12,800 miles.

The magazine states, "In general the conditions of the test, including the overloading of the tires and the temperatures of the Texas summer, were likely to result in relatively rapid tire wear."

Of the eight tires tested, three were classified as "Acceptable—Good"; four were "Acceptable—Fair"; and one brand was listed as "Not acceptable."

The chief test run in the magazine's research laboratory after the road tests was the "plunger" test for carcass strength. In this examination, a cylindrical steel shaft with a one and a quarter inch diameter is thrust into the tire at various points. The pressure necessary to penetrate the tire and the depth of penetration are measured.

This test is particularly useful in determining the ability of the tire to survive bruising jolts occurring when the automobile is driven over large stones, holes and curbs. Carcass strength, the magazine states, is the chief safety factor in any tire.

The tires in the top quality category—of which General was one—were listed as "significantly better" than the other brands.

Rehearsals for Play

The senior class of Oceana High School will begin rehearsals next week for "A Case of Springtime," a three-act comedy by Lee Sherman, under the direction of Miss Margaret Bailey and Mrs. M. J. Owens. The play is filled with fast action and a humor that varies from chuckles to roars, and combined make this a perfect play for our high school.

Ray Hutenspieler is a high school boy with troubles, and neither his girl, Bessie Melvin, nor the school principal, Walter Whitehurst, seems to understand him. The cast promises a delightful evening full of laughs.

National 4-H Club Week

The Oceana Senior 4-H Club is observing National 4-H Week. The motto for the week is "Working Together for World Understanding." In an exhibit in the library, the club tells how they have contributed to the International Farm Youth Exchange, which is an organization providing for selected farm youth of the United States to visit cooperating foreign countries. There they live and work with farm families for four months. The plan also provides young people in the cooperating countries to come and live and work in the United States.

All kinds of material on ten of the leading projects carried out by 4-H members have also been placed in the library exhibit to acquaint the student body with 4-H work.

In one of the home rooms, the members prepared an attractive bulletin of snapshots taken at the State Short Course at Blacksburg and the State Fair at Richmond last year.

Typing Class Members Win Pins
Mrs. M. J. Owens has announced that the following students received awards as a result of the National Competent Typing Test given at Oceana in January:

Betty Brown, 83 words per minute; Frances Gilbert, 63 words; Bessie Melvin, 51 words; Betty Lee Saunders, 49 words; and Nina Aldridge, 36 words.

Betty Brown and Frances Gilbert won the silver Competent Typist Pin as well as certificates. These tests are given in accordance with international rules and are graded by the Gregg Publishing Company.

Oceana on the Air

The Literary Club of Oceana recorded a program Wednesday, March 7, which will be broadcast over WCAV. Topic of the broadcast is a student forum on "Today's Education." Marylewis Peck, of Virginia Beach, president of the club, conducts the program and acts as general chairman. The discussion of the merits and faults of "Today's Education" is designed to help the general public realize more thoroughly what is happening in their schools. The forum consists of the following students: Peggy Wood, Audrey Morse, Roger Miles, Billy Powell, and Kay Smith.

Bessie Melvin sings "Bless This House."

Teachers Attend Conventions
Miss Frances Farley, of Oceana High School, attended the annual convention of the Virginia Home Economics Association held at Hotel Roanoke, in Roanoke, Va., March 8-10.

The VHEA had as its theme for the annual convention, "Our Homes, Our Security." Among the outstanding speakers at this convention were Mademoiselle Helene Terre, co-ordinator for the U. S. Commission on Internal Cooperation and Education, Paris, France, who spoke on the subject "Friendship Through Understanding," and Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, past president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, of Richmond, Va., who spoke on "Woman and World Affairs." Style shows, exhibits on new fabrics for home and wardrobe, and exhibits on new household equipment were all part of the convention.

Miss Joanne Sterling attended a Southern Association for Health and Physical Education Convention at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond March 1-3. Speakers of note from the state and out-of-state were on the program. Attending were both college and high school teachers and supervisors of health and physical education.

Play Presented at South Norfolk

The Dramatic Club of Oceana High School presented "The Happy Journey," by Thornton Wilder, on Wednesday, March 7, at South Norfolk High School auditorium. The play was rated distinguished by the judges, Miss Taylor Jackson Brown and Mrs. Eugene Underwood.

The cast included Herman Melvin, Ora Dall Hardy, George Aldridge, Faye Lee Green, Edgar Parker, and Mary Lee Ward.

The rating of the play in the district festival of one-act plays for Group II schools entitles Oceana School to go to the University of Virginia on March 30 to participate in the sixteenth annual State One-Act Play Festival.

The play was directed by Mrs. C. T. McCloud and Miss Constance Loving.

Oceana on the Air

During the past week Oceana was on the air twice. Station WTAR broadcast our program at 11 o'clock Saturday, March 10, and WCAV broadcast another Oceana program March 13 at 9 o'clock. We hope a lot of people heard these programs.

Senior Class Play in Rehearsal

The senior class of Oceana High School began rehearsals on Tuesday night for "A Case of Springtime," to be presented April 13 in the high school auditorium.

The play is a three-act comedy consisting of fifteen characters. Among them we find Mr. Parker, played by Edward Wright, somewhat gruff and stern on the surface. This is partly show, however, for he likes to pretend that he has definite ideas on how to bring up his children. Mrs. Parker, played by Marilou Shaffer, is more tolerant of her children but at times even she is baffled.

"They can't do this to me," cries Mr. Parker. "Oh, can't we," they cry, and we're off to a glorious evening.

Forensic Meet

The Group II High School Forensic Contests will be held Saturday, March 17, at Cradock High School.

Those who will represent Oceana High School in the contests are as follows:

Girl's Public Speaking, Bessie Melvin; Girl's Prose, Faye Lee Green; Boy's Prose, Roger Miles; Poetry, Clavon McGrath; Spelling, Carolyn Meschum; Debaters, Juanita Aldridge, Edward Wright, Peggy Wood, and Ora Dall Hardy.

These students have been working hard to prepare for the contest under the direction of Mrs. Warren Sandidge and Miss June Lyon. Mr. Strickler, principal, and Mr. Cox have assisted.

Dictaphone Demonstration

Ernest E. Wooden, Jr., a representative from the Dictaphone Company in Norfolk, visited the commercial classes at Oceana High School recently. He brought two dictaphone machines with him—a transcriber and a receiver—with which he illustrated the value of the dictaphone.

County S. C. A. Meeting

The South Norfolk and the Norfolk County S. C. A. met February 13 at the Deep Creek High School. The main topic of the program was "Courtesy and Honesty in School and Community." The welcome address was given by Fred Boalt. The devotional period was conducted by Patsy Holland. Six topics were discussed by the group and two films shown. Lunch and a dance in the gym followed the business session.

State to Send 4-H Representative to Europe in June

Franklin Wilson, a young Augusta County farmer, has been named Virginia's 1951 delegate under the international farm youth exchange project.

Exchange delegate is Miss Cora Marie Blackmore, of Princess Anne County, a senior at Madison College.

State 4-H Club officials at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, who made the announcement, said Mr. Wilson will leave sometime in June for a three months stay in Europe.

The project, designed to further world understanding by making possible exchange visits of farm youth between Europe and America, is sponsored in Virginia by the 4-H Clubs and the All Star Chapter, an honorary 4-H organization.

Mr. Wilson has had about nine years in 4-H Club work, and is a graduate of Bridgewater College. He is now part owner and assistant manager of a 170-acre dairy farm, and is still active as a 4-H Club leader and camp counselor.

Delegates are chosen on the basis of their farm background, previous travel experience, leadership abilities, and 4-H Club work.

Winter Costly for Virginia Highways; Lighter Locally

The Winter of 1950-51 was a costly one for Virginia highways, according to preliminary reports by engineers of the State Highway Department.

While the depth of snow thus far during the Winter has been relatively light, frequent ice and sleet storms coated highways in many sections, caused deep freezes in the ground, and required a heavy use of chemicals and abrasives.

Hundreds of carloads of sand and cinders and thousands of tons of calcium and sodium chloride have been used in an attempt to keep pavements clear.

Ice is more difficult and costly to fight than is the average snow storm, according to road engineers. Snow can be scraped or blown off, but ice clings tenaciously to pavements and must be covered with abrasives and gradually melted with chemicals.

Snow, ice and damage caused by deep freezes and thaws were reported heaviest in the mountains and northern Virginia. Eastern Virginia suffered relatively light damage.

JAMES A. JENSEN ATTENDS NAVY ELECTRONICS SCHOOL

James A. Jensen, seaman recruit, USN, of Norfolk Avenue, extended, is receiving his first military instruction at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., under the Navy's recruit training program.

Young Jensen qualified for the Navy's Electronics Technician School when he enlisted through the Norfolk Navy Recruiting Station.

Jensen graduated from Oceana High School, class of 1948, and attended William and Mary, Norfolk, before enlisting in the Naval service.

Dale G. Browder to Receive Degree from Wake Forest College

Dale G. Browder, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Browder, will be graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wake Forest College in June. He is majoring in music and minoring in education. He is now assisting in the college music department, a member of the band, glee club and the traveling choir. He has been a member of the college track team and on the production staff for the Magnolia Festival, a colorful event held by the college each Spring.

Mr. Browder is now doing practice teaching in band in two local high schools and is director of a church choir. This Fall he plans to resume his music teaching.

Army Seeks Nurses For Active Duty

Virginia has been asked to provide 27 of the 3,650 nurses being sought for voluntary recall to active duty with the Army, the Virginia Military District announces. The breakdown of the Virginia quota is 20 general duty nurses, one supervisor or head nurse, three anesthetists, one operating room nurse, and two psychiatric nurses.

Pennsylvania and Ohio drew the highest allocations in a breakdown by states of the Second Army Area quota of 724. The former received a quota of 311, and the latter, 208. Quotas for other states in the Second Army Area are: District of Columbia, 68; Delaware, 5; Kentucky, 16; Maryland, 26; and West Virginia, 63.

When Nasty Colds Leave You WEAK AND RUNDOWN HADACOL CAN HELP

If Your System Lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron, Which HADACOL Contains

When a nasty cold leaves you in a weakened and run-down condition, HADACOL can help build you up if your system is lacking in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron, important elements contained in HADACOL. Many folks have found that this fine family formula helps overcome these deficiencies and soon they feel good again.

Mrs. A. Jimenez, 141 East 13th St., Fort Arthur, Texas, gave HADACOL to her young son, Floyd, after he had recovered from a bad cold when she heard how HADACOL was helping folks suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron. It helped him so much in regaining his strength and energy that Mrs. Jimenez says she is always going to have HADACOL on hand for Floyd.

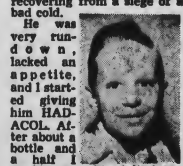

Here is Mrs. Jimenez's statement: "My son Floyd was very subject to colds. He's eleven years old, and he was run-down, didn't seem to have an appetite at all, and just simply lacked energy. I heard about HADACOL on the radio, and it was about this time that Floyd was just recovering from a siege of a bad cold.

He was very run-down, lacked an appetite, and I started giving him HADACOL. After about a bottle and a half I could notice an improvement. His appetite picked up and he had increased strength. I think HADACOL has done wonders for Floyd, and can't praise it enough. I have continued to give him HADACOL and intend to always have it on hand for Floyd."

Men, women and children of all ages are praising HADACOL for supplying Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron which their systems lacked. Don't let that "After-Cold Run-down Feeling" drag you down—HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer such deficiencies.

Sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great after the first few bottles you take or your money back. Trial size, $1.25; large family economy size, $3.50.

VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County on the 21st day of February, 1951.

JULIA R. MARCHANT, Plaintiff v. DAVID W. BURNS and JOAN MARCHANT BURNS, Defendants

The object of the above styled suit is for the said plaintiff to obtain an attachment against real property owned by defendants located on Salem Road, Princess Anne County, Virginia, which is described as follows:

All that certain tract or parcel of land, with the improvements thereon, situated in Seaboard Magisterial District in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, known, and designated as "Tract A," containing twenty (20) acres, more or less, as shown on a certain plat entitled "Division of Farm made for J. M. Therser, south side of Salem Road," made by W. B. Gallup, County Surveyor, September 15, 1948, and more particularly described in accordance with said plat as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southern side of Salem Road where the western line of said Tract A intersects said Salem Road; thence running along the southern side of Salem Road South 37 degrees 13 minutes East 89.3 feet to a pipe and South 29 degrees 00 minutes East 124.7 feet to another pipe in the Western line of Tract B; thence along the Western line of Tract B, South 39 degrees 00 minutes West 134.1 feet to a point; thence North 65 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence South 30 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence North 62 degrees 00 minutes West 312.5 feet to a elm; thence North 22 degrees 30 minutes East 935 feet to a poplar; thence North 81 degrees 30 minutes East 289.3 feet to a sweet gum; thence North 87 degrees 45 minutes East 45.3 feet to a pipe; thence South 61 degrees 10 minutes East 92.4 feet to a pipe; thence South 43 degrees 01 minutes East 50.7 feet to a pipe; and thence North 83 degrees 06 minutes East 52.2 feet to the point of beginning; (said property also being shown on a certain other plat entitled "Survey for Vernon B. Lee, southside of Salem Road," made by C. R. McIntire, Esq., October 8, 1943, and recorded in Map Book 15, page 22, in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia), upon the grounds that the defendants have removed from this State with intent to change their residence.

JULIA R. MARCHANT, Plaintiff v. DAVID W. BURNS and JOAN MARCHANT BURNS, Defendants

The object of the above styled suit is for the said plaintiff to obtain an attachment against real property owned by defendants located on Salem Road, Princess Anne County, Virginia, which is described as follows:

All that certain tract or parcel of land, with the improvements thereon, situated in Seaboard Magisterial District in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, known, and designated as "Tract A," containing twenty (20) acres, more or less, as shown on a certain plat entitled "Division of Farm made for J. M. Therser, south side of Salem Road," made by W. B. Gallup, County Surveyor, September 15, 1948, and more particularly described in accordance with said plat as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southern side of Salem Road where the western line of said Tract A intersects said Salem Road; thence running along the southern side of Salem Road South 37 degrees 13 minutes East 89.3 feet to a pipe and South 29 degrees 00 minutes East 124.7 feet to another pipe in the Western line of Tract B; thence along the Western line of Tract B, South 39 degrees 00 minutes West 134.1 feet to a point; thence North 65 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence South 30 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence North 62 degrees 00 minutes West 312.5 feet to a elm; thence North 22 degrees 30 minutes East 935 feet to a poplar; thence North 81 degrees 30 minutes East 289.3 feet

to a sweet gum; thence North 87 degrees 45 minutes East 45.3 feet to a pipe; thence South 61 degrees 10 minutes East 92.4 feet to a pipe; thence South 43 degrees 01 minutes East 50.7 feet to a pipe; and thence North 83 degrees 06 minutes East 52.2 feet to the point of beginning; (said property also being shown on a certain other plat entitled "Survey for Vernon B. Lee, southside of Salem Road," made by C. R. McIntire, Esq., October 8, 1943, and recorded in Map Book 15, page 22, in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia), upon the grounds that the defendants have removed from this State with intent to change their residence.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an oversized cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in there?" I asked him. "That's my 'blind-spot' reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept one in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then."

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grew and grew — now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

Charge Standards for Induction Threaten National Security

America will be ill-prepared for all-out war unless its armed forces abandon the unreasonably high standards which are screening able men into the 4-F junk pile.

That's the finding of a Cosmopolitan magazine reporter who claims that the new mental test for the service would have eliminated some of the best fighting men of World War II, including Congressional Medal of Honor winners.

Writing on "The 4-F Scandal" in the March issue, the reporter quotes Selective Service Director Lewis Hershey as saying that he doesn't believe six million of the nation's 150,000,000 people could pass present-day induction standards.

According to the article, "an artificial draft dodger could deliberately flunk the Armed Forces' mental test. Despite double checks on flunkers, fifty per cent of the men rejected between last July and October were turned down for failure to pass the mental examinations."

The author states that one out of every four registrants is rejected for physical defects. He names top-flight athletes—golfers, gridiron stars and baseball players—who were listed as 4-F's during World War II. "Today," he points out, "the armed forces have raised, instead of lowered, the unreasonable standards they applied during the last war."

Colonel Warner Bowers, chief surgical consultant to the Army, believes that the wholesale rejection of selectees is a national disgrace, says the reporter. The same officer, he adds, drew up a memorandum showing that the 4-F's could handle more than 50 per cent of the Army's jobs.

Service Personnel Advised by VA on Insurance Provisions

Instructions to servicemen on active duty as to the insurance provisions of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act have been issued by the Veterans Administration. That act is applicable to all men and women in the armed services at the present time and those who may be called to active duty. It protects them as to various civil rights, during the period when their absence from their usual residence and occupation might fail to afford normal protection.

Any person in the armed forces may apply to the Veterans Administration for protection of his commercial life insurance policy, through the guaranty of premiums. VA may approve each application up to a total of $10,000 worth of insurance.

This applies to commercial life insurance policies, not the National Service Life Insurance to which servicemen and veterans are entitled.

Servicemen and women wishing to apply for the protection of commercial life insurance should make application through their military establishment.

If a serviceman or woman is stationed in a foreign country, his beneficiary should make application for the protection, through the Veterans Administration rather than the military establishment. The beneficiary should write to the nearest VA office, or call, and get the proper application form, which is to be returned to VA.

If the application is approved, VA will proceed to pay premiums and policy loans of interest as due, while the insured remains

Beach Volunteer Fire Department Gets Radio Equipment

The Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department held its regular meeting Tuesday night and heard Chief Sykes, of the Norfolk Fire Division, give a short talk on fire fighting in general. Afterward, Chief Sykes showed a film entitled "Ventilation." The film demonstrated the importance of ventilation; when, where and how to ventilate. Chief E. B. Bayne stressed the value of the film, adding that a picture is worth 10,000 words.

The Volunteer Fire Department recently appropriated $1,000 for the purchase of radio equipment to be placed in the fire apparatus. They now report that the radios are here and in use. Communication now is possible between each truck and headquarters.

Appeal Made by Dr. Porter for Support Of Heart Fund

Every county in Virginia has been alerted to the urgent need for last minute support of the Heart Fund, according to Dr. Reno R. Porter, president of the Virginia Heart Association.

"It is not too late to give generously to this important health cause," he said. "So far, we have not received sufficient funds to carry on the Heart program planned for this state. We need more money, quickly, if this work is not to be sharply curtailed," Dr. Porter said.

Princess Anne County's quota is $1,000, and though returns have been coming in slowly there is still time to meet that goal, campaign officials here believe.

Funds raised will be used to promote a three-pronged program of heart research, education and community service, each a vital part of the effort to control heart disease.

Contributions may be sent to HEART, care of the Virginia Beach, or other, post office.

Willard Ashburn Appointed February 23 By Council To Make Annexation Study

No Further Details Revealed in Reading Of Minutes of Session

Willard R. Ashburn, attorney, has been retained by the Town of Virginia Beach to study possibilities of annexation, presumably of the North Virginia Beach area.

This was revealed at Monday night's town council meeting when minutes of a special meeting held February 23 were read. No details were made public concerning annexation plans of the community, but the assumption is that it will not encompass as large a territory as that which came under plans studied more than a year ago which would have taken in not only North Virginia Beach but also Bay Colony.

The Virginia Beach Town Council, in special session Wednesday night, resolved that funds gained from the luxury taxes on rooms, cigarettes, and admissions, which go into effect May 1, will never be used for any purpose other than designated in the ordinance.

With Vice Mayor H. E. Halstead presiding, the council instructed the town treasurer to set aside the tax receipts in special funds earmarked for erosion control, erection of a convention hall, and extra garbage collection.

The treasurer also was authorized to set aside for advertising purposes an amount equal to the legal limit allowed by the State—or not more than 3 percent of the gross receipts of the town per annum. It was intimated that this would run in the neighborhood of $24,000.

Sewage Survey

Town Engineer Carroll Bounds, who has been in communication with the Federal Bureau of Community Facilities, regarding a study of sewage facilities, reported that he has discovered that Virginia Beach apparently is the only community in Virginia that has made a bid for a study and it appears "favorable" that the Federal government will grant the needed funds. However, he said, if a Federal sewage survey is undertaken, and the community acts on the recommendations of the surveyors the town will have to repay the Federal government.

Mr. Bounds also reported that plans are complete for the third step in the town's street improvement program—the widening of 23rd Street in the business district for one block between Atlantic and Pacific avenues at a cost of $5,200. It is to be 56 feet from curb to curb and the work will include new curbing, gutters, and sidewalks. The blueprints referred to the streets committee for study.

Salary Increase Studied

The matter of salary increases for town employees was referred for consideration to the finance committee for report at an early meeting.

The council also held in abeyance any action on the request of E. Lachman, who operates a fishing pier at the beach for take-outs from the town in constructing jetties. The council said plans and specifications must be submitted and approved, and that from the appearance of materials observed to be already on hand it would not be "practicable."

(Mr. Lachman's request for town aid in erecting two 80-foot jetties near 16th and 17th Streets was tabled Monday pending study of the plans and specifications. The cost was not estimated.)

Other business taken up at the regular session Monday night included:

Reading of a letter from President Truman to Representative Porter Hardy denying the use of money from the Federal govern-

Parlette Heads New Committee to Carry Out Broader Work

A $25,000 publicity campaign, financed by the town's new luxury taxes, to advertise Virginia Beach as far west as Chicago and Detroit, will get under way in April, according to Bruce A. Parlette, chairman of the advertising committee of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce.

The Eastern Seaboard also will be covered in the campaign which will be a community undertaking rather than a project backed only by the hotels, Mr. Parlette said.

There is as yet no plan for the hiring of a paid publicity agent to augment the newspaper advertising campaign, Mr. Parlette said.

The new chairman, who is co-owner of the Tides, Seapray and Idlewild hotels, was appointed to the post by Chamber of Commerce President W. W. McClanahan, Jr. at a meeting of the board of directors Tuesday.

Others on Committee

Other members of the committee are W. F. Crockett, operator of two theatres; Charles W. Gardner, hotel manager; W. Russell Hatchett, town manager; Sidney Banks, president of the Cavalier Hotel Corporation; Frank C. Becker, hotel owner and operator; Herbert A. Holt, automobile dealer; H. E. Halsdale, councilman; and John W. McCombs, hotel owner and operator.

VFW Auxiliary to Sponsor Darden Family April 6

The Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7166 will sponsor the television and radio tone, Mary Bell Darden and her family, at the Community House on April 6.

Tickets are on sale at the Princess Anne Provision, 26th Street; the Alder House, 31st Street; the Virginia Beach Tailor Shop, on the Avenue between 16th and 17th Streets; or from any number of the Auxiliary.

Proceeds will be used for transportation of one of the county school bands to Keough Veterans Hospital for a concert on April 15, and for welfare work in the county.

The concert will climax the current year's work for the Auxiliary. During the past year they have presented parade flags to the Oceana High School Band; presented an American flag and troop flag to Girl Scout Troop 200, sponsored by the Auxiliary; gave a Thanksgiving and a Christmas party and a previous concert at Keough; sold articles made by blind patients at the hospital; and gave assistance to needy families in the county.

Mrs. Addenbrook Club Speaker

Mrs. Rufus Kight, Jr., was hostess to the Bird Neck Garden Club at its luncheon meeting on Tuesday.

Mrs. John E. Addenbrook was guest speaker for the occasion. Her subject was the need for conservation of soil and trees. She reported on the recent conservation forum held in Richmond, and presented copies of the guide for "Green Week," which takes place the last week in April. The club discussed plans for making the garden tour.

County Rural Life Institute at Creeds High School April 2

General Public Gets Invitation to Attend Sessions This Year

The third annual Princess Anne County Rural Life Institute will be held at Creeds High School on April 2, at 7:30 p.m.

Previous Institutes have been very beneficial and helpful to those attending—only professional workers and ministers—but this year an invitation is extended to the public as a result of requests by many interested people who know the benefits of such meetings.

The Planning Committee, composed of B. L. Hummel, rural sociologist; the Rev. R. A. Craig, pastor of the Charity Methodist Church; Jane Craig, home demonstration agent; and J. W. Brothers, assistant county agent, have arranged a varied program. The schedule is as follows:

4 to 6 p.m.—Conference of professional workers; B. L. Hummel presiding.
6 p.m.—Dinner in Creeds School Cafeteria, served by F. H. A. Girls.
7:30 p.m.—Public meeting in auditorium, when the topic "What the Rural Church Means to the Farm Family" will be discussed in three parts by B. L. Hummel, the Rev. W. A. Richardson, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, and the Rev. Fletcher Osborne, pastor of Oceana Methodist Church. H. W. Oslin, county agent, will preside. Special music will be furnished by local talent.

County professional workers and local ministers are invited to be present at the council meeting, as well as the open meeting to which the general public is invited.

PTA Invites Parents Of Pre-School First Graders to Meeting

Registration for pupils entering the first grade next September and an educational meeting for mothers of these prospective first graders will be held at Willoughby T. Cooke School on Thursday, April 5, starting promptly at 1:00 p.m., according to an announcement by Mrs. James Fridley, health chairman of the Cooke School Parent-Teacher Association.

The meeting is for parents only—children are not to come. Appointments for a pre-school clinic will be given those mothers who desire it at the time of the meeting.

Children must be six years of age on or before September 30, 1951, if they are to enter the September term of school. Parents are asked to bring birth certificates if possible.

Club Plans Fashion Show, Card Party at Community House

A gala event—a striking fashion show and card party—has been arranged by the members of the Bay Colony Garden Club for the Community House, April 25, at 1:30 p.m.

Clothes for the show will be furnished by Berson's shop, newly opened at Virginia Beach. Commentary will be by Mrs. Robert Hollicher.

Proceeds from the event will be used for the club's beautification program.

Those in charge are: Mrs. R. Lee McNee, general chairman; Mrs. Goodwin S. Jordan, refreshments; Mrs. Talbot Dickson and Mrs. R. C. Deal, Jr., tickets; Mrs. A. W. Baggett, publicity; Mrs. R. H. Caswell, tables; Mrs. Russell Marshall, door prizes; and Mrs. Clarence Tibbels, decorations.

State's Vacation Business Expected To Show Increase

Travel Group Says Northern Interests Pledge Cooperation

Virginia can expect exceptional vacation and travel business this year from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware, a delegation of sixteen Virginians, headed up by Albin Mailhes, of Virginia Beach, and J. Linwood Rice, of Richmond, report after a week's tour of that area sponsored by the Virginia Travel Council. More than 900 officials of motor clubs, travel agencies, chambers of commerce, hotels and motor courts were contacted by the party during the week, and mass meetings of travel interests in Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia pledged their cooperation to Virginia's tourism.

The Virginians traveled in eight station wagons and placed approximately 350,000 booklets on the State during the tour, and showing Virginia motion pictures to full meetings on six occasions. Leading newspapers and national magazines were also contacted.

Members of the party returned assured that travel in Virginia this year will break all records. The group broadcast about Virginia on several occasions during the tour. Material distributed advertised Virginia events to take place this Spring, including distribution of several thousand Garden Week maps and material on Virginia communities.

Oceana Students Win Ratings At Forensic Meet

For the second consecutive year, Oceana High School debaters have received a distinguished rating in the District Forensic Meet, Nita Aldridge, of Virginia Beach, and Edward Wright, of London Bridge, debated for the affirmative, the question being, "Resolved: That America Should Reject the Welfare State."

Two readers, Clavon McGrath, poetry reader, and Faye Lee Green, prose reader, were judged superior. The rating scale is: 1st, distinguished; 2nd, superior; and 3rd, creditable.

Nita Aldridge and Edward Wright will now compete in the State Forensic Meet April 28 at Charlottesville, Va. Miss June Lyon, coach for the debaters, will accompany them.

'Heaven Can Wait' Final Production for Beach Little Theatre

"Heaven Can Wait," a comedy-fantasy by Harry Segall, will be the final offering of the Little Theatre of Virginia Beach this season. It will be produced at the Rolind Theatre April 23 and 24, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Masary.

The popular motion picture, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," in which Robert Montgomery starred as the young fighter who was rescued when his plane crashed by a messenger from heaven, only to find that he was slated to live another 60 years, was based on this play.

An unusually large number of aspirants turned out to try out for parts in "Heaven Can Wait," which has a cast of 18.

Bobby Addenbrook will play the young priest; Al Randolph will play Mr. Jordan, the dropout from heaven; Constance Crockett Crosby, as Betty Logan, the charming love interest; and Jim Allen, as Max Levene, Joe's bawdiest manager.

Beach Delegation Makes Auditorium Study in Florida

Dispatch Says Group Impressed with Fort Lauderdale Building

A delegation of Virginia Beach town officials have concluded a survey of auditoriums in the Fort Lauderdale, Fla. area and will recommend incorporation of a number of features of the Fort Lauderdale war memorial auditorium in a similar structure proposed for Virginia Beach, according to a dispatch from Fort Lauderdale.

Among the Virginia Beach officials visiting Fort Lauderdale to inspect the auditorium, and other convention halls throughout the state, were W. W. McClanahan, Jr., city councilman and president of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, Fred A. Haycox, chairman of the Virginia Beach convention hall committee, and Town Manager W. Russell Hatchett, who impressed local officials with his eagerness and desire to promote the Virginia Beach resort.

They were joined during their visit to Fort Lauderdale by Percy Traflet, manager of the Traflet-Chalfonte Hotel, and Jimmy L. Kitchen, manager of the Halifax Hotel, Virginia Beach. "Most of the auditoriums we saw after arriving in Southeastern Florida," Mr. Hatchett stated, "have a number of desirable features. We were most impressed, however, with the Fort Lauderdale layout. The town manager is reported to have said he feels a structure similar to the one in Fort Lauderdale would be best suited to the needs of Virginia Beach."

Mr. Traflet and Mr. Kitchen explained it is the hope of the Virginia Beach town officials and the hotel association to build an auditorium similar to that in Fort Lauderdale so the resort can attract larger conventions and thereby extend the summer season.

Cooke PTA to Sponsor Spaghetti Dinner

The W. T. Cooke Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a spaghetti dinner on Thursday, March 29, at 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. A movie, "You Can Beat the A-Bomb," will be shown in the school auditorium at 7 p.m.

Mrs. John A. Tucker, chairman of the ways and means committee, has announced the following committee chairman: Mrs. Herbert Festress, ticket chairman; Mrs. C. M. Howard and Mrs. W. B. Meredith, co-chairmen of hostesses. The room mothers will serve as hostesses.

A charge of $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children will be made for the dinner; the movie will be free for all.

Beach Garden Club Receives Gold Seal At Camellia Show

The Virginia Beach Garden Club was recipient of the gold seal for its room exhibit at the Camellia Show held in Norfolk over the week-end. Members who were in charge of the room were: Mrs. David Pender, Jr., Mrs. Carl Forsberg, and Mrs. Henry Lewis.

In addition, Mrs. Emmett Kelle received a blue ribbon for her mantel arrangement; Mrs. Hardy Cole, blue for an occasional table; and Mrs. Clinton Woodhouse, 1st for her shadow box arrangement. Mrs. Woodhouse was chairman for the club for arrangements.

Why No High School For Virginia Beach? Loan Never Granted

An application for a $700,000 loan for the purpose of constructing a high school at Virginia Beach is due for a hearing before the State Retirement Fund Board in the near future, according to J. O. Blount, of the State Department of Education.

This will be the second trip through for the loan application. Mr. Blount revealed yesterday. The first was turned down, although it had been approved by the Department of Education for hearing. He added that the second application carried additional information for the board's consideration.

Mr. Blount explained that the original application had not gone through the Literary Fund, as was announced last May, since that fund was depleted.

(On Jan. 1960, an announcement was made at a political rally that $700,000 had been approved for construction of a high school at Virginia Beach, and that an Associated Press release to the effect that $165,000 was granted was in error.)

The original application, as is the present one, is subject to the State law that municipal borrowing may not exceed 10 percent of a municipality's assessed valuation. Since Virginia Beach had little leeway at the time the first application was heard, it was turned down. The second application will stand a more favorable chance, according to local authorities in that it will have the advantage of the new assessments for the Mayflower Apartments and other construction completed and on the assessment books of the town.

Boost In Teacher Pay for County in Board's Budget

A boost in teachers' pay in Princess Anne County is scheduled if the school board's budget is approved when it goes before the County Board of Supervisors on Monday.

Superintendent of Schools F. W. Cox said that the increase should have little trouble getting the go-ahead. He said that it will mean that Princess Anne County will be able to hire the best teachers, for its teacher pay scale now compares favorably with others in the State and Tidewater Virginia. The Virginia Education Association ranks Princess Anne's scale for elementary teachers fourth in the State and for high school teachers ninth.

The board, which met on Tuesday, awarded a contract for a new elementary school at Seaboard for Negroes to the W. T. Gregory Construction Company, of Norfolk, low bidder on the project at $317,505.

Mr. Cox said that a few revisions were made in the original plans and that the revised plans have been sent to Richmond for approval of the modifications.

Work should be under way within 10 days on the Seaboard school building, which will serve as a central school for colored pupils in the area now covered by several elementary schools.

TOURISTS LIKE VIRGINIA'S STATE FLOWER—DOGWOOD

According to a recent survey on what the visitor likes most about the State of Virginia, the dogwood, come in for special commendation. The best calculation of the Virginia Conservation Commission set April 10 for the opening of the rebud season in the Jefferson National Forest, and April 15-30 for the dogwood.

Candidate for Clerk of Court Not Included

Simpson, Whitehurst, Abernathy, Upton, Senter on Ticket

A coalition of five opposition candidates, under the name "People's Ticket," last week announced a 12-point campaign program in its all-out fight to take control of Princess Anne politics out of the hands of the incumbent organization.

The five candidates are Robert Lee Simpson, candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney; Charles E. Upton, candidate for sheriff; John B. Senter, for commissioner of revenue; Willard P. Whitehurst, for treasurer; and E. Morris Abernathy, for House of Delegates. While the slate did not contain a candidate for the office of clerk of the court, it is expected that an announcement will be made in the near future in order to complete the People's Ticket for the six main offices.

The 12-point campaign platform presented by the group said:

"1. We pledge to refrain from indulging in petty jealousies, recriminations and the imposition of unfair . . . retribution against anyone whether they support us or work against us. We have no intention of relieving anyone of his job or means of livelihood because of the outcome of this election.

Appointments on Fair Basis

"2. We believe that such positions as are necessary for the proper conduct of public business in the county should be filled on the basis of personal merit, taking into consideration the experience, training and education of the applicants, disregarding all other considerations.

"3. We pledge ourselves to conduct such affairs of the people as may be entrusted to us in a businesslike manner . . . forswearing all efforts to permit any group to secure unfair advantage in matters of business, in the administration of justice, and in the enforcement of the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

"4. We believe one group has conducted the affairs of the county and the affairs of the Town of Virginia Beach in an arrogant and selfish manner. It is our intention and we hereby promise the people . . . we shall endeavor to return to the people their prerogative of governing themselves.

"5. In the above connection, we believe, and therefore specifically charge, that for many years, the affairs of government have been conducted upon principles based upon petty politics, with an utter disregard for the rights of the people. It is our primary purpose in this campaign to restore such rights.

'Cynical Violations' Charged

"6. We believe that lawlessness and a higher degree of organized and uncontrolled crime have been the rule in this county for many years. We promise, with the support of the right-thinking people, to stamp out such flagrant and shameful practices as we can. In this connection, we have particular reference to open, notorious and cynical violations of the law by those engaged in the operation of gambling devices, gambling houses, illegal dispensation of alcoholic spirits and other unlawful pursuits.

"7. We believe that such adequate and practical school facilities as the people can afford should be made available for the public education of all the children in the county.

"Overcrowded, badly heated schools without proper lighting or toilet facilities are a disgrace to our county. As an example, we

THE TOWN'S ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

Virginia Beach's new advertising campaign, financed by special taxes imposed for the purpose as well as for other pressing needs, is a step in the right direction. With the authorization of the town to set aside up to the legal limit for advertising (which amounts to 3 per cent of the gross receipts of the town), it appears that the sum might even exceed the $20,000 estimated.

The need for advertising is great. We have a fine resort, we have every reason to be proud of the facilities for fun and relaxation we have to offer. Compared to other seaside resorts of comparable size, Virginia Beach is tops.

But we have to spread the good word, and to do that we must have the money to buy newspaper space to tell the story.

Word of mouth advertising of satisfied customers is, of course, the ideal way to draw other customers to the Beach, but such a method is scarcely practicable.

We would like to see, in addition to the paid newspaper and magazine advertising campaign, the hiring of a top-notch publicity man—one who can tell our story through the news columns as well as in the advertising columns of papers in areas from which we hope to draw customers. Even though a publicity man of high calibre is an expensive adjunct to the advertising, he nevertheless would be well worth the added expense.

We believe that the town fathers are on the right track; we believe that Town Manager Russell Hatchett, the council, the hotel association, and the chamber of commerce are working for the best interests of the community in inaugurating this campaign.

They may depend on our support in their efforts as believers in the ultimate benefit that will come from the campaign as outlined.

SCHOOLS, ANNEXATION AND POLITICS

The word that the Town of Virginia Beach has retained Willard Ashburn, attorney, to study annexation proceedings came at a recent council meeting. The revelation was apparently made through error, for it was obvious that the fact was not yet ready to be made public. The idea has not been enlarged upon, and there are no details.

The news would like to have the situation aired so that the suspicion that annexation is now entering the picture as a political strategy might be cleared up.

We recall that last summer during the councilmanic campaign, during a rally of the machine candidates, the announcement was made in a dramatic, although somewhat misleading fashion, that "We have secured $700,000 for a high school for Virginia Beach." The boys took all of the credit; they did not expound on the fact that a high school had been long the aim of citizens of the Beach, and that it had been in the works for many months. They neglected to give details, such as interest rates, and the possibility that the loan might get snarled up in some manner. In short, the high school financing became a vote-snatcher—a manner of saying "Lookie, fellows, we can pull $700,000 out of the air. You can't do that."

Now comes annexation. The man on the street is suspicious that in annexation he is getting another dose of issue clouding. He recalls the hullabaloo about the high school, and fears that he was taken in, for the school appears to be no nearer realization than it was before the big announcement except for a set of pretty pictures.

He remembers that annexation got a pretty thorough smacking around last year, and that even then he heard a lot about politics in connection with it.

Such a strong and convincing stand was taken against annexation last year, even at the cost of the then-town manager's job, that our average man was almost convinced that the move was not then, and could not be made, economically feasible.

Now, it appears, an about face has been made. In spite of rising costs, in spite of vigorous agitation for severance in the area seemingly under consideration (at a cost far greater than it would have been last year), annexation once again is brought to the foreground.

"What is this all about anyway?" our man asks himself. "Maybe this is just a way someone has of corralling my vote. Maybe they really aren't serious, so I won't get all het up about it. In other words, I won't give it a thought one way or another."

"Tun on to all their tricks," he will say. "They won't trick me again."

He feels that the present mystery about the town's plans for annexation mean that there is something mighty funny about the whole thing.

Why not air it all? What about the school; just what are the town's annexation plans?

After all, Mr. Mayor and members of the council, we are all supposed to be working together for our town.

Amateur Radio Operators May Join Military System

Civilian radio operators with amateur licenses issued by the Federal Communications Commission may apply for membership in the Military Amateur Radio System, the Virginia Military District has announced.

MARS was established in 1949 to provide a source of trained radio communication personnel in the event of a local or national emergency. Until recently only amateur operators with military affiliations were admitted to membership.

Membership in MARS will in no way affect members' draft status or their availability for essential jobs in industry.

After MARS networks have reached a state of proficiency, they will be made available for Civil Defense and Red Cross requirements.

Applicants must be over 21 years of age, and must have in their possession and in operation the necessary equipment to operate in the MARS networks.

Application forms and further information may be obtained from the Signal Officer, Headquarters Second Army, Fort Meade, Md.

Major Ruby with Engineer Group on Duty in Germany

Major Jack W. Ruby, son of Mrs. W. H. Ruby, of Virginia Beach, has assumed the duties of S-3 officer of the 18th Eng. Combat Battalion, near Frankfurt, Germany.

Formerly Aviation Section Chief of the 88th Eng. Combat Group, Major Ruby's new assignment has just been announced.

He was graduated from the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, in 1939, and entered the service at Ft. Belvoir in August 1941 as second lieutenant. He served with the 2nd Engineering Special Brigade and 41st Infantry Division in the Pacific Theatre during World War II, earning the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart. In September 1947 he attended the Liaison Pilot School at Fort Sill, Okla., and later attended the 2nd Advanced Engineering Officers Course at Ft. Belvoir. The major organized the Engineer Center after his graduation in June 1948. He went to Germany in September 1950.

Mrs. Ruby and the couple's three children are with Major Ruby in Germany.

Survival Under Atomic Attack

WHAT ARE YOUR CHANCES?

WHAT IS "INITIAL" RADIOACTIVITY? EXPLOSIVE RADIOACTIVITY IS THE MOST IMPORTANT KIND, BUT IT LASTS ONLY A MOMENT.

Broadly speaking, atomic explosions produce two different kinds of radioactivity. First—and most important in an air burst—is an extremely powerful invisible burst of rays and particles thrown off at the time of explosion. This kind is called "initial" or explosive radioactivity. Its rays and particles fly out quickly, then promptly die. There is danger from them only for little more than a minute. The second type of radioactivity—lingering radioactivity—will be described later.

THE BIGGEST DANGER FROM EXPLOSIVE RADIOACTIVITY LIES WITHIN A MILE OF THE EXPLOSION

The injury range of the explosive radioactivity from a modern A-bomb is a little over 1 mile, if the bomb is exploded about 2,000 feet in the air. If it is exploded much higher, some of the radiation may not reach the ground, so the range may be less. If it is exploded much lower, the radiation also may not reach out as far, because it would be blocked by the ground or by buildings.

A little more than a mile away, the principal effects of the few dying rays that struck you could be seen only as temporary blood changes in a doctor's examination. You probably wouldn't even realize you had been exposed.

A little less than a mile from the explosion center, if you are unprotected, you are almost sure to suffer illness. Less than two-thirds of a mile away, those caught in the open are pretty sure to soak up a fatal dose of radioactivity.

USDA in Market for Twin Holstein Calves

Dairy scientists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture are looking for purchased or high grade identical twin Holstein heifer calves and are willing to pay a reasonable price for them.

Identical twin calves—preferable under a month of age—are needed for dairy nutrition studies at the Agricultural Research Center located in Beltsville, Md.

The research workers hope to obtain necessary calves as close to Beltsville as possible. This will permit them to make a personal examination before the purchase and to save shipping expense.

Holstein breeders in the area having identical twin heifers which they wish to market are requested to write to E. C. Lofel, Bureau of Dairy Industry, USDA, Beltsville, Md.

Virginia Beach
Princess Anne County, Virginia
March 17, 1961

To Whom It Concerns:

It is agreed that the only issue in the Princess Anne August primaries is DEMOCRACY vs. KELLOCRACY—PEOPLE'S rule against KELLAMS' rule—the dignity of man against serfdom to a machine.

There is increasing evidence throughout the county that a successful operation can be performed on the ill patient, Body Politic, if the doctor, Civic Conscience, is moulded to a single purpose with the full team play of x-rayers, anesthetists, internes, nurses and orderlies.

A studiously analytical estimate reveals that KELLAM, Inc., has a hard-core, vest pocket vote of 35 per cent, leaving only 16 per cent needed to forge another fetter. Rebellion against 16 years of tyranny indicates that no more than 5 to 10 per cent can be added as a fringe to this core, which falls short of a majority. A united front will give the PEOPLE 55 to 60 per cent. On the other hand, this 55 to 60 per cent split only two ways means a plurality for the MACHINE, which with disdainful ease will grind out another victory. This is not political ingenuity, merely elementary mathematics.

Therefore, for the PEOPLE to win the August ball-game (to change metaphors), it is vital that the scrappingest, hard hittingest, vote-gettingest players with the most "know-how" be welded into a cooperative unit without delay. Should this entail personal disappointment, self-sacrifice, being dropped to the scrubs, shifted from one's favored position or cut entirely from the squad to become a cheer-leader or bat-boy, it is a MUST in order to defeat the KELLAM MACHINE. Even though some on the team feel unfriendly to each other, one recalls that the best double play combination base-ball probably ever knew, "Tinker to Evers to Chance," included Johnny Evers and Joe Tinker who for years never spoke to each other off the field.

In selecting the team, the opinion of those who believe that only the Galahads are qualified to serve should be respected, but it is to be remembered that it is a political team and not a theological one. The high and ultimate goal is community decency and integrity in government, and if anyone doubts that this voter does not subscribe to this thesis, a glance at his record should suffice. To those unfamiliar with it, his files, for the past years, are open for inspection. But to the purists who say, "you cannot clean up with a dirty broom," the answer smacks one full in the face. Why talk of sweeping, when the citizens now, in addition to being gagged, are bound hand and foot with chains of steel and can't even get off the floor, much less pick up a broom? The fight is for good government, but the first step to that is PEOPLE'S government, not autocracy. The bonds of KELLOCRACY must be broken in August or else the one golden opportunity in sixteen years will go aglimmering and all effort will be labor lost. Another such chance is not in the cards for many times sixteen.

When the umpire yells "Play ball!" at sunrise on August 7, the teams, PEOPLE'S PARTNERSHIP vs. KELLAM, Inc., will have taken the field. Unique for the game, from then on, the scoring will all be done by the rooters (voters) and these will line up with 35 per cent already scored for KELLAM, Inc., which block of runs (votes) will be composed of the vice vote, public office holders and families, those beholden to the MACHINE in return for special privilege, those bludgeoned to their knees with fear, a few sincere but misguided followers, and the ramifications of a more than octopusian clan. Against this, the PEOPLE'S PARTNERSHIP crowd will consist of the sore-heads, malcontents, conscientious objectors, crusaders, and "ornery aginers"—just people—but it was such a motley army as this which was with G. Washington at Valley Forge, and the job was done; such a band as this which asked Garibaldi, the great Italian patriot of the last century, "What are we going to get out of it?" His reply is the basis for the Churchillian battle-cry of the last war, "blood, sweat and tears." Garibaldi said, to wit: "Get out of it? You'll get forced marches with bleeding feet, empty bellies crying for food, bodies aching from exhaustion and cold gnawing fear, but, in addition, you'll get LIBERTY"—and they got it.

Oh People, all of us—this August game is for high stakes. We are playing for our birthright.

Along these golden beach sands and in the rich soil of our fields are mingled the sweat, blood and tears of our forebears shed so that we might be a free people. Shall we dissipate our heritage and not will it to our progeny either here or to those loved ones, who, 7000 miles away, are giving in some instances more than death "to keep us from getting pushed around," when in the homes, fields and businesses from Black Water to Little Creek and beyond, to which they are longing to return, their families are letting themselves be reduced to vassalage?

If just for one day, come August, all of us, who want to rewin our birthright for ourselves and children's children get together and, forgetting pet peeves and animosities against the players and each other, rally to the PEOPLE'S banner, freedom is ours.

Timberlake-Wheeler Wedding
Saturday at Gainesville, Georgia

The First Baptist Church of Gainesville, Ga., was the setting last Saturday night for the marriage of Miss Ann Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Clifford Wheeler, to Julian Burton Timberlake, III, of New York, son of Comdr. Julian Burton Timberlake, of Virginia Beach, and Greenville, N. C.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Franklin Owen, and the church was arranged with southern smiles, lighted candles and Easter lilies. Mrs. F. P. Brown, organist, played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with tiny round collar, long pointed sleeves, and self covered buttons down the front of the long line bodice. The full gathered skirt ended in a train. Her veil of silk illusion was caught with clusters of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The bride had as her matron of honor her sister, Mrs. F. C. Strother. Bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Alexander, of Forsythe, Ga., niece of the bride; Miss Anne Rogers, of Chapel Hill, N. C.; Miss Ann Martin, of Easley, S. C.; and Miss Lucille Beaver and Mrs. Philip Newton, of Gainesville, Ga. All of the attendants wore gowns of turquoise taffeta, made with sole effect at the off shoulder neckline, and their flowers were crescent bouquets of red tulips. William Gwathmey, of Baltimore, Md., was best man. Groomsman were Thomas Battle, of Rocky Mount, N. C., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Eli Perry, of Chapel Hill, N. C.; Philip Newton and F. C. Strother, of Gainesville, Ga.; and Larry Widman, of Asheville, N. C.

The bride's mother wore a dress of dusty rose chiffon and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Timberlake, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of powder blue and a corsage of pink camellias.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents on North Green Street. Later, the couple left for a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga. Upon their return they will reside at 133 East 35th Street, New York.

Out-of-town guests were Commander and Mrs. Julian B. Timberlake, Jr., Mrs. James Jordan, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Jordan, of Virginia Beach; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Battle, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Battle, of Rocky Mount, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huger, Miss Lorena Rogers, of Chapel Hill, N. C.; Miss Frances Bryant, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Martin, of Easley, S. C.; and Mrs. Gaston Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McIntyre, of Chapel Hill.

Working MAD!

AMERICA'S greatest need today is for greater productivity—first, so that our defense needs can be speedily met, second, to provide enough essential civilian goods to hold down inflation.

Electric power is the very lifeblood of production, and thanks to sound business management, no transfusions are needed—there is now, and there will be for constantly growing needs—power a-plenty.

VEPCO, along with the nation's other business-managed, tax-paying electric light and power companies, stands ready to supply all the power needed for better productivity all along the line... not just in making guns, tanks and planes, but in turning out civilian goods, too.

America is called on for another miracle of production. We have the business know-how. We have the spirit. We have the electric power. No country on earth can beat that combination!

OCEANA High School News

Operetta Wins Prizes

The heroine of "Betty Lee," the operetta presented by Oceana High School Friday night, was a girl of spirit. We fell in love with her and the entire cast.

There have been many rumors that "Betty Lee" was the best production put on by the school in quite a while. We are aware of the fact that in casting such a production not only talent and appearance had to be considered but vocal abilities as well. All members of the cast had solos.

All songs being originals for this particular operetta. Orchids go to Miss Aldridge, Joanne Hughes, Clavin McGrath, Mae Coleman, Ethel Halsey, Kaye Lee Green, Edgar Parker, Steve McDaniels, Julian McDaniels, Walter Whitehurst, Shippy Hull, Jim Fogle and Ray Whitehead, making up the cast; the Glee Club choruses; Miss Preston, director of music; Miss Lovins, director of dramatics; Miss Sterling, director of dances; Miss Faley, director of costumes and make-up; Mrs. Owens, for printing programs; and our principal, Mr. Strickler, whose interest acted as an incentive for all concerned with "Betty Lee."

Senior Play in Rehearsal

The Senior Class of Oceana High School is rehearsing nightly for "A Case of Springtime"—a comedy in three acts by Lee Sherman.

Among the characters we find Dickie Parker, played by Shippy Hull, who is an extremely self-conscious youngster with an amusing air of superiority. He pretends to be annoyed at the way Gwen, played by Corinne Falconer, follows him around, but confidentially he probably enjoys it. Dickie is too smart to let her know it though. It's the secret of his "power over women."

The play promises to keep you howling. It will be presented on April 12 in the high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Margaret Bailey and Mrs. M. J. Owens.

KEMPSVILLE High School News

School to be Evaluated

A committee has been appointed by the State Board of Education to evaluate Kempsville High School on April 2, 3 and 4. Committee members and the positions they hold are as follows:

Lamar Stanley, director of instruction, Newport News city schools, Newport News, chairman; Miss Louise Moses, head of the department of business education, Cranby High School, Norfolk; C. C. Hancock, principal, Thomas Jefferson High School, Richmond; Miss Frances Mays, assistant supervisor of health and physical education, State Department of Education, Richmond; W. E. Chadderton, principal, Onancock High School, Onancock; Dr. Charles Martin, professor of education and psychology, Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg; Miss Louella Connelly, district supervisor of home economics, Lawrenceville; Mrs. Margaret Allen, librarian, Norview High School, Norfolk; Miss Josephine Taylor, Norfolk regional consultant service, Norfolk; Herbert J. Davis, general supervisor, Norfolk County schools, Norfolk.

After checking on the school the committee will discuss the week and closing points of the school system and offer their suggestions for improvement.

$5,000 Given Stadium Fund

Chiefly through the efforts of the Kempsville representative, E. J. Herrick, the Board of Supervisors has appropriated $5,000 to the Kempsville Stadium Fund. The debt on the stadium is now $4,500.

Play Given

Students of Kempsville Elementary School presented a play on March 17, at 11 a.m., over WTAR. The title of the play was "Democratic Living at Kempsville." The cast was as follows: Mrs. Parks, Miss Nichols, Mrs. Howell, Mary Ann Johnson, Beverly Burger, Beverly Koon, Edward De Barry, Marjorie Wright, Carolyn Charles, Fred Hudgins, Robert Leong, John Back, Aaron Bues, and Woody Johnson.

The play was based on the everyday life of the students in Kempsville Elementary School.

Track Practice Begun

With the arrival of Spring, the following list of the Kempsville track team have begun practice: James Kline, John Sheridan, Robert Anney and Byrd Dunlap.

Manager Frank Woodruff announced that there are fourteen new recruits for the team. Track meets planned are: April 19, Highland Spring Invitational; April 23, Oceana and Suffolk, at Foreman Park; April 27, District Meet at Williamsburg. Other track meets are pending.

"I know the satisfaction and peace of mind that comes from life insurance. I speak for thousands of beneficiaries whose financial future has been made more secure by Jefferson Standard's 'Planned Protection Service'.

"In our family, life insurance is as necessary as other fundamental needs of present day living. It is the stabilizer that keeps our long-range plan of financial security on an even keel.

"As a member of Jefferson Standard's large family of beneficiaries I share the feeling of pride in the progress and growth of our Company."

—Quoted from our Annual Report Booklet

The 44th Annual Report of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company reflects continued growth and progress.

Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries amounted to $11,775,508 in 1950, bringing total payments since organization of the Company to over $199 million.

Assets of the Company now amount to more than $265 million. Total insurance in force exceeds $967 million.

Sales of new insurance amounted to over $130 million in 1950, a new high and a 6% gain over 1949.

For the fourteenth consecutive year Jefferson Standard maintained its leadership among all major life insurance companies in rate of interest earned on invested assets. This very favorable rate enables the Company to pay 4% on dividend accumulations and policy proceeds left with the Company—extra income to policyholders and beneficiaries.

Through Jefferson Standard's Planned Protection Service the hopes and ambitions for financial security are being realized by thousands of families: income for retirement years—education of children—cash to pay off mortgages—Incomes to widows—lump sums of cash for final expenses in event of death—business insurance—and many other forms of protection.

Jefferson Standard's Field Representatives are trained to render a high quality of underwriting service, tailored to meet the needs and circumstances of the individual.

SHIRLEY DI MAMBRO (also sometimes known as Shirley Ann Di Mambro) and EDWARD ANTHONY DI MAMBRO, Defendants

The object of the above styled suit is to satisfy a debt due by the Defendants to the Plaintiff, and to subject the following property of the Defendants, located in Princess Anne County, to the satisfaction thereof, which is described as follows:

1. All that certain tract, piece or parcel of land in the Seaboard Magisterial District, in the County of Princess Anne, State of Virginia, containing 3-7/10 acres, more particularly bounded and described in accordance with plat of "Property of H. W. Hewitt, located near London Bridge, in Princess Anne County, Va.," made by W. B. Gallup, County Surveyor, dated October 6, 1948, and to be recorded.

Beginning at a point on the eastern side of Swamp Road to London Bridge at the center of a culvert over a lead ditch crossing said road, being the southwestern corner of the J. L. Shipp Farm at the line of Greenville Wright; thence along said road N. 17 deg. 37 min. E. 440.1 feet to a pin; thence leaving said road and along the center of a ditch S. 75 deg. 55 min. E. 504.7 feet to a point marked by a pin at the intersection of another ditch; thence along said last mentioned ditch S. 90 deg. 13 min. W. 388.6 feet, and N. 11 deg. 04 min. W. 128.4 feet, to a pin at the intersection of the lead ditch hereinbefore mentioned; thence along said lead ditch N. 85 deg. 14 min. W. 385.7 feet to the point of beginning. Being the same property that was conveyed to Shirley Di Mambro by deed of Henry W. Hewitt dated November 8, 1948, recorded in Deed Book 264, page 265, in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia.

2. All the undivided 3/4 interest in and to that piece or parcel of land, lying, situate and being in the State of Virginia, containing 38.0036 acres, as shown by a survey called "Plat of Portion of William A. Wright's Farm, Seaboard Magisterial District, Princess Anne County, Virginia, made: August 29th, 1923, by Joshua O. Moore, County Surveyor of Princess Anne County," which said plat is annexed to and made a part of this deed and is described as follows:

Team Wins Hampton Roads Championship
The Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Oceana, basketball team won the championship of the Hampton Roads Basketball League by defeating Fort Story in a playoff game played last Thursday night in the Norfolk Receiving Station gymnasium. The score was 52 to 50.
Fort Story had won the first half championship of the league's split schedule. Oceana won the second half championship. The two teams then met to decide the league championship.
The rival teams put on an excellent, hard-fought game. The score was close throughout, with Oceana leading at the half by 31 to 27. They clung to their lead to the finish, finally emerging victorious 52 to 50.
A beautiful, large trophy was presented to the Oceana team as a symbol of their victory.

Outstanding Holstein Cow Dies At Age of 25 Years After Faithful Service to Family
It is fitting to pay tribute to "Maggie," an outstanding Holstein cow of Princess Anne County that passed away Saturday, March 10. From a weak orphan calf, "Maggie" grew to be a huge cow and lived to be over 25 years old. In her prime she gave a bountiful supply of milk and up until two months before death was still producing. For eight years she gave milk without freshening. She was only sick for a few hours before death came. She leaves to mourn her loss her owner, Mrs. Gregory, of Little Neck, and others of the family whom she served so faithfully through the years. "Maggie" was laid to rest on a grassy knoll on the Gregory farm.—By Gertrude White.

Fishing Seasons, Creel Limits Set for '51

Virginia's fishermen can start making plans and getting their fishing tackle ready once again. The Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, meeting in executive session at Richmond, set the seasons and creel limits for fresh water fishing in the Old Dominion for 1951.

The trout season will open on April 20 as usual, but the opening time will be changed from 5:30 a.m. to 12:00 o'clock noon. This change is effective only on opening day, and all other days of the season will open at the usual "one hour before sunrise" time and close at one hour after sunset. The change to noontime in the opening day schedule is expected to cut down on the number of "run jumpers" who in their superstition to fill their creels at the expense of the sportsperson, ignore the starting hour and fish the heavily stocked streams under cover of darkness.

Although many good reasons were advanced for changing the opening day to May 1, the Commission finally decided that since a large number of sportsperson had timed their vacations to coincide with the usual April 20 opening date, it would cause too much disruption in their plans if the change became effective this year. However, in 1952 the opening date will be May 1.

Since the Commission felt that trout fishing is a sport and not a "meat getting proposition," and since the trout stocked in Virginia's streams this year by the Commission were at three-year-olds averaging 12 to 16 inches, the creel limit was set at 5 trout in order to spread the fishing opportunity over a greater number of fishermen.

Closing date for the trout season will be at one hour after sunset on September 15.

In further action during the session, the Commission added 20 days more fishing for the bass and wall-eyed pike fishermen by moving the opening day on these fish up to June 1 this year, instead of June 20 as in previous years. The closing dates on bass fishing will be December 31 west of the Blue Ridge and March 15 east of the mountains.

Junior Women Elect Mrs. Kennett Club President

Officers Installed at Meeting Tuesday at Legion Club House

Mrs. K. Lynn Kennett was installed as president of the Junior Women's Club at the annual banquet at the American Legion Club on Tuesday night. Mrs. Alexander Morgan, of Norfolk, president of the Junior Women's Club Sixth District, officiated at the installation of the new officers.

Mrs. Kennett succeeds Mrs. James Allen, Jr., who becomes the club's new permanent officer.

Mrs. Allen presented gifts to the Outstanding Junior Woman of 1950, Mrs. Joseph LaCigla, as well as passing along to her the silver bowl which Mrs. LaCigla keeps during the year in recognition of the honor. Other gifts went to Mrs. Virginia J. Holland, last year's contact chairman, and to Mrs. Allen, as the outgoing president.

New officers include, in addition to Mrs. Kennett and Mrs. Allen: contact chairman, Mrs. Aubrey N. Holmes; first vice president, Mrs. V. Alfred Etheridge; second vice president, Mrs. A. S. King, Jr.; third vice president, Mrs. J. Robert Addenbrook; recording secretary, Mrs. Ruth Morgan; corresponding secretary, Miss Ruth M. Ford; treasurer, Miss Ruth C. Fritchard; historian, Mrs. George D. Newkirk.

The invocation was read by Mrs. Holland; a club history by Mrs. D. Murray Malbon. A skit was presented by Mrs. J. C. Penington, Mrs. LaCigla and Mrs. W. W. Connell, Jr.

Little Theatre Is Celebrating Third Anniversary

Final Production of Season Is Thirteenth In Past Three Years

The Little Theatre of Virginia Beach celebrates its third anniversary this week. On March 29, 1948 the first general meeting was held, with about a hundred and fifty interested persons present. The Little Theatre was soon fast instead of fancy, and the first play, "My Sister Ellen," was in rehearsal, with Carol Sampson as director.

The first group of officers was headed by L. B. Shelly, as president; R. B. Taylor, as first vice president; Mrs. William Sills, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Thurman, secretary; and George Mulman, treasurer. Ten of the original group of fourteen organizers are still active in the group. R. B. Taylor is president; James Allen, vice president; J. D. W. Casenda, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Henry, secretary.

The Little Theatre now has to its credit twelve plays, with the thirteenth in rehearsal.

The first play was held in the W. T. Cooke School auditorium. For the next two years the Little Theatre became a part of the Community House, and acquired a workshop where the plays were rehearsed. The Community House auditorium, however, had its limitations as a theatre, especially in the matter of size and acoustics; rehearsals could not be held on the stage, and the set could never be constructed until the last minute.

This year, through the kindness of Dr. Edward Myers, the Roland Theatre was made available to the group; for full-time use, and at last the Little Theatre came of age.

This season will close with the comedy fantasy "Heaven Can Wait," by Harry Segall, with seasoned players Bobby Addenbrook, Jim Allen and Connie Crockett Crosby in three of the leading roles. This is the first time the Little Theatre has undertaken a play with more than one set, but it will take that hurdle successfully as it has so many others in the past. The play will be produced at the Roland Theatre, April 23-24, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Masury, who has directed all of this year's productions.

Plans Completed for African Violet Exhibit

The Princess Anne African Violet Society met March 15 at the home of Mrs. A. J. Keisles on 18th Street, with Mrs. Hattie Milton as co-hostess.

Mrs. Sam Thrasher, of Greenbrier Farms, gave a most interesting talk on the care and culture of violets.

Plans were completed for the exhibit to be held April 11 at the Palmetum Restaurant from 2 to 9 p.m. All persons interested in exhibiting violets as an arrangement, variety or single plants, should call Mrs. D. V. Malbon or Mrs. Nick Asteria before 11 a.m. April 11, as judging will start at 1 p.m.

Barrie to be Speaker At TB Meeting

Robert Barrie, new secretary of the Tuberculosis Association of Virginia, will speak on the "Fundamentals of the Tuberculosis Association's Program" at the meeting of the Princess Anne County chapter planned for 11 a.m. April 11 at the First Presbyterian Church. The meeting is open to the public.

The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting, and other business is on the agenda. Mrs. E. M. Hardy is president.

USDA Sets Price Supports on Corn And Other Grains

Greater Production Of Farm Crops Seen In Higher Prices

Price support on the 1951 corn crop will be at 90 per cent of parity in all areas, with an assured minimum national average of no less than $1.54 a bushel, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced. At the same time specified dollars-and-cents average support rates on oats, rye, barley, and soybeans were given. All levels are higher than in 1950.

The support prices are announced well in advance of planting to encourage increased production of feed grains, and hence more livestock, according to R. B. Bridgforth, chairman of the Production and Marketing Administration State Committee.

The supports will be effected through loans on stored grain or through purchase agreements, both available to producers, as was the case last year.

Mr. Bridgforth said that the support for corn in 1951 will not be less than a national average of $1.54 a bushel, which is 90 per cent of the corn parity price on January 15, 1951. It could be higher. If corn parity is higher on October 1, the beginning of the next marketing season, the support will reflect 90 per cent of parity at that time.

In Virginia, Mr. Bridgforth pointed out, the support level on corn and other grains is considerably higher than the national level to reflect the freight differential to mid-west elevators. For example, the 1950 national average support rate on corn in the commercial areas was $1.47 a bushel, as compared to $1.61 in Virginia's commercial counties. If the same relation holds, the 1951 rate in Virginia would be about $1.68 a bushel. This year there are no designated commercial areas, just the flat rate for each state.

The supports on the 1951 crops of oats, rye, and barley are fixed at 75 per cent of parity on January 15, 1951. Unlike corn, these supports are fixed and will not be changed to reflect any possible increase in parity at the beginning of the marketing season.

In the case of soybeans the national average support rate for 1951 is set at $2.45 a bushel, based on 90 per cent of parity on January 15, 1951. This compared to an average price last year of $2.06 a bushel, based on 80 per cent of parity on September 1, 1950, the beginning of the soybean marketing season.

Since Virginia is close to terminal markets for soybeans, the price here will likely be somewhat below the national average. The base rate in Virginia last year was $2.01 a bushel. If the same relation holds in 1951, the rate in Virginia will probably be about $2.40.

Comparative price supports for the different crops for 1950 and 1951 (per bushel) for Virginia are as follows:

Corn: $1.61 in 1950, $1.54 in 1951; oats: 70 cents in 1950, 90 cents in 1951; rye: $1.43 in 1950, $1.35 in 1951; barley: $1.34 in 1950, $1.25 in 1951; soybeans: $2.01 in 1950, $2.40 in 1951. (1951 prices are estimated.)

Mr. Bridgforth said that the 1951 price support on wheat was announced several months ago prior to fall seedling time. The wheat rate will be at 90 per cent of parity on July 1, 1951, but in no case less than the 1950 rate. In Virginia the wheat support rate last year varied by counties from $2.18 to $2.36 per bushel.

County Board Adopts $1,270,000 Budget for Fiscal Year 1951-52

The over-all tax structure in Princess Anne County's five magisterial districts was cut all along the line by the County's Board of Supervisors in session on Monday. At the same time, the board adopted a $1,270,000 budget for the fiscal year 1951-52, which includes a record school budget of $719,000.

Reductions in the tax rates were recommended after it was found that there exist sufficient surpluses that have accumulated in specialized funds, along with greatly increased assessed valuations reflecting boom construction during the last year, to offset the cuts.

Overall Rates

The overall rates for the five districts now become: Blackwater, $2.30 from $2.45; Kempville, $4.40 from $4.70; and Lynnhaven, $4.10 from $4.55, plus a mosquito control fee of 25 cents per hundred; Pungo, $5.50 from $5.65; and Seaboard, $4.20 from $4.55.

The newly adopted budget represents an increase of about $190,000 over last year, and the tax reductions range from 15 to 85 cents in the magisterial districts.

The budget included expenditures for Princess Anne County schools, exclusive of Virginia Beach, of $719,000, reflecting a $120,000, or 20 per cent, increase over last year. Of this amount, $107,000 goes for salary increases.

The welfare budget totals $127,530, of which $27,245 comes from the county, the balance being borne by Federal and State governments. This is up slightly more than $5,000 over last year's figure for the county.

M. Lu Goodman, who presented the budget to the supervisors, explained that road funds contained a sufficient surplus balance so that taxes for roads could be cut and still yield enough to take care of interest and amortization of the road debt. The county road debt has been eliminated.

The road debt for the Lynnhaven district, which was 80 cents on each $100 of realty assessment, has been removed. For the Pungo district, the drop is from $1.70 to $1.50.

General Tax

For the Seaboard district, the drop is from $1.10 to 90 cents. The general fund tax of 60 cents remains the same. The school debt fund, which last year was set at 25 cents per hundred, has been cut to 20 cents.

The county tax for school purposes remains at $2.50, but special funds were cut with the exception of the Pungo district.

The Lynnhaven school fund has been sliced from 40 to 30 cents but the Pungo school fund has been raised from 50 to 70 cents—the only raise in the budget.

The two magisterial districts having improvement funds, Lynnhaven and Kempville, both show drops—the former from 75 to 50 cents per hundred to yield $17,000, and Kempville from 50 to 35 cents to yield $19,000.

School Budget
The school budget of $719,000 was presented to the supervisors by Frank W. Cox, superintendent of schools, and John S. Day, school board chairman.

Mr. Cox explained that the greatest percentage of the budget was going for instruction and comes to $505,000, approximately $100,000 more than last year. This reflects a 5000 ton increase in the base pay of teachers, which also reflects a 5000 ton increase in the base pay of teachers in the County's salary scale.

Red Cross Collects 175,000 Pints Blood For Armed Forces

Program Assures Korean Wounded Chance for Survival

The American Red Cross has turned over more than 175,000 pints of blood for Korean wounded and military stockpiling since it was first called upon to supply blood to the armed forces last August, it was announced this week in Washington by E. Roland Harriman, Red Cross president.

In addition, Mr. Harriman said private blood banks cooperating with the Red Cross in the procurement of blood for military purposes have supplied over 38,000 pints.

Whole blood is flown from the United States to the Far East to supplement blood collected in Tokyo by the United Nations blood bank. It is also used for processing into plasma for military stockpiles and in domestic military hospitals.

Red Cross blood collections have more than tripled since last July. Mr. Harriman said, and the organization has been able to fill all requests for whole blood for Korea and to make a good start in the stockpiling of plasma.

"Collections must continue to increase, however," he said, "if we are to continue to meet military and civilian needs."

In commending the Red Cross on the expansion of its blood facilities to meet defense needs, Dr. Richard L. Meiling, chairman of the armed forces medical policy council said, "the armed forces will continue to need blood not only for overseas shipment but for our military hospitals and for our stockpile of plasma."

The death rate of Korean wounded is less than half of the World War II figure and only one-quarter of the rate among combat troops during World War I, according to Dr. Meiling. On an average the Korean casualty not only receives whole blood more promptly than the wounded of World War II, but he receives it in greater quantities.

Free Movie, "The M-G-M Story," to be Shown Saturday

A free movie and cartoon will be shown at the Beach Theatre at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 31, open to all.

The movie will be "The M-G-M Story," according to W. F. Crockett, and will show in an entertaining manner back of the scenes suggested from 26 forthcoming MGM pictures. Of interest to movie-goers, these on-the-spot records of how and what pictures are being made will have a wide appeal.

In addition, one of MGM's new cartoons will be shown to round out an hour and 15 minutes of good entertainment.

Mr. Crockett urges the public to attend.

Methodist Church Announces Special Week of Services

Special evangelistic services will be held at the Virginia Beach Methodist Church beginning Sunday evening at eight o'clock and continuing each evening at 7:45 p.m. (Saturday excepted) through Sunday of next week.

The Rev. Graham S. Carlton, pastor, will be assisted by the Rev. Leonard R. Black, pastor of the Colonial Avenue Methodist Church of Norfolk. The Rev. Mr. Black is well known in the Norfolk area, having served eighteen years as a minister in Norfolk. He has been prominent in evangelistic activities throughout the Virginia Conference. At the present he is director of evangelism for the Norfolk district of the Methodist Church.

J. W. Grandy, director of the choir at the Colonial Avenue Methodist Church, will lead the singing. Just recently Mr. Grandy directed his choir in its twenty-sixth consecutive annual presentation of Stainer's "Credo." He will bring his choir to Virginia Beach Thursday night for special music in the revival services.

* Special groups will sponsor the services during the week. The pastor has designated Monday night as "church leaders' night." For this service the stewards of the church and every officer and teacher in the Sunday school will be urged to attend. Tuesday night the ladies of the Beasley Bible Class will be asked to attend the service and sit in a body. The Men's Bible Class has been requested to sponsor the Wednesday night service. Thursday night will be assigned to the ladies of the Dawson Bible Class, and Friday will be observed as Young People's Night at which time all the children and young people of the church school are asked to attend.

On Tuesday evening special music will be rendered by the Southside Male Quartette, of Norfolk, and the Presbyterian Male Quartette, of Virginia Beach, will sing another evening to be announced later.

County Teachers to Hear Dr. Armstrong In Address at Oceana

Dr. Louis E. Armstrong, professor of secondary education at George Peabody College, will address the teachers of Princess Anne County at Oceana High School at 3 p.m., on Friday, March 30.

Dr. Armstrong is a prominent Southern educator. He has served as a member of the advisory council on secondary education, United States Office of Education, and has also been school consultant in Orangeburg, S. C., and Jefferson County, Ala.

He has also assisted departments of education in several states in the preparation of courses of study.

Dr. Armstrong is author of several leading magazine articles on teachers and educational leadership.

Nurses Complete Instructors Course; Begin Four Classes

Ten nurses have completed an instructors course in home nursing preparatory to teaching home nursing in the civilian defense program, according to Mrs. Jean Reynolds, acting home nursing chairman. They are: Mrs. E. L. Beasley, Mrs. Janice Ebert Lovell, Mrs. Guy Bonney, Mrs. William F. Hudgins, Mrs. Nina C. Partidge, Mrs. Margaret Brathwaite, Mrs. Naomi Thomson, Mrs. Henry C. Meyer, Mrs. Jean Reynolds, and Miss Lillian Ashley.

Instruction was given at the Community House, through the cooperation of William Fantone, director.

Classes already started by the instructors are: Chesapeake Beach, Mrs. Brathwaite; three classes in Kempville, Mrs. Thomson. The Princess Anne chapter of the American Red Cross, with the assistance of Ivan Mapp, director of civilian defense in the county, is supplying equipment for the classes.

Volunteers Complete Work at Library

Cataloging and arrangement of books in the Virginia Beach Library, at the Community House, has been completed, according to an announcement by library authorities.

The work was done by Jane Cayce and her assistant, Laurel Wilcox, who volunteered for the duty. Junior League volunteers also assisting were: Mary Walton, Dolly Walwright, Ann Brooks, Margery Todd, and Helen Johnson.

Oceana Band to Give Concert, Tom Thumb Wedding Tonight

The Oceana Band will present a Tom Thumb Wedding and band concert tonight, March 30, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The bride in the Tom Thumb Wedding will be Sylvia Brown; the groom, Tom Williamson; the maid of honor, Martha Shelli; the best man, Bob Williamson, twin brother of the groom; the preacher, Eddie Taylor.

The concert will consist of two popular favorites, "The Thing," and "Tennessee Waltz"; and the following classical selection: Prelude in C Minor by Rachmaninoff, Championson Parade, Waves of the Danube, Pacific Grandeur, a solo by Edwin Chester, and Deep River Rhapsody.

The band, under the direction of James A. Cantwell, will also present Nancy Lee Dawson's pep songs, "Cavaliers Are We."

The proceeds from the concert will be used to pay for uniforms.

Cooke PTA Changes Time of Meeting

A new time has been set for the Willoughby T. Cooke Parent-Teacher Association meeting on April 3, according to the president, Mrs. Aubrey N. Holmes.

The group will meet at 1:30 p.m. and the meeting will last until 3 p.m.

The boys glee club will sing.

Mrs. Holmes urges all parents to be present.

VFW Post Elects New Officers for Year

THE GARDEN CLUBS

Princess Anne's many garden clubs are a pleasant and practical adjunct to a better community life.

Far from being the pink-tea affairs generally believed by devotees of Helen Hokinson cartoons, these clubs have chalked up an impressive record of doing.

For example, the Council of Garden Clubs of Princess Anne County now has a contest under way for the beautification of the county, which has some $600 in Savings Bonds as prizes for beautification in six separate categories. This council, which includes all of the clubs in the county, also has been instrumental in having improved garbage collections in the two districts in which that service is available, and is at present carrying on a continuing fight to have collections made in communities occupied by Negro citizens. The women point to the inherent danger where collections are not made in crowded areas, and are working for betterment with the full cooperation of the Negro women's garden club.

The Bird Neck Garden Club has planted in recent weeks more than 100 dogwood trees in their section—a beautification measure that will bear fruit for years to come. This club is but one of the garden clubs in the county to assist in the Virginia Federation's dogwood planting project, which was joined first by the Princess Anne County Garden Club.

The Bay Colony Club is carrying on a program to beautify the entrance-way to the Bay Colony section; the Virginia Beach Garden Club has sought the cooperation of the Board of Supervisors to have circulated the garbage collection ordinances in North Virginia Beach to help householders in that section.

These are but a few of the many helpful and useful projects being carried to completion by these women. It is true that in Princess Anne County they have a natural beauty that is hard to surpass, yet there are many unfortunate people who fail to see and preserve that beauty, and it is here that the club women are doing good missionary work.

More power to them!

Harry Wayne to Sing Lead Part in Mendelssohn's 'Elijah' April 16

Harry Wayne, director of the Norfolk Symphony Orchestra, announced that the soloists for the forthcoming presentation of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" on April 16 at the Municipal Auditorium will be Harry Wayne, baritone; Blake Stern, tenor; Charlotte Hoecher, soprano; and Grace Hoffman, contralto. All of these singers are American born and American trained.

Mr. Wayne, a gifted and versatile young American baritone, will take the part of Elijah in the work. He began his career at the age of eighteen in Los Angeles with the Metropolitan Opera Association. A succession of engagements brought him before the music world. He spent four years in the service in England and France. He returned in 1946 to study at the Julliard School of Music, where his remarkable voice, fine musicianship, teamed with a genuine acting ability, were recognized and encouraged.

When Serge Koussevitzky decided to perform Beethoven's Ninth Symphony in Carnegie Hall, Harry Wayne was chosen for the solo quartet. On that occasion, Olin Downes wrote in the New York Times wrote of his "Excellent understanding and clearness of enunciation." He has also sung the solo baritone, parts in the Messiah, the Seasons, and Verdi's Requiem.

THE PLUM TREE

by Leslie B. Beasley

If I should try to tell you
Of a poem I saw today,
I never could describe it,
I'd know not what to say.

I was held in breathless silence,
My soul was stirred to see
The magic of such beauty,
In a white plum tree.

Capt. John C. Parham

Captain John C. Parham, USN Medical Corps, retired, died on Monday at the age of 68 years at the U. S. Naval Hospital, San Diego. Captain Parham had been ill for some months.

Originally from Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Captain Parham entered the Navy in 1906 after his graduation from medical school. He served many years in the Norfolk area.

He is survived by his wife, the former Elmore Williams, who is living in San Diego; one daughter, Mrs. J. J. Zuka, wife of Commander Zuka, of Bethesda, Md.; two sons, Captain J. C. Parham, Jr., USN, of Washington, D. C., and Commander W. B. Parham, of Arlington, Va.; and nine grandchildren.

His daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Parham, Jr., is the former Miss Homie Barco, of Virginia Beach.

Interment will be in Arlington National Cemetery. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Patricia Devlin

Mrs. Patricia Coughlin Devlin, 47, widow of Paul J. Devlin, a native of Ireland, and a resident of Virginia for 11 years, died Tuesday morning at the residence, 36th Street and Holly Road.

The body was taken from the residence to the Star of the Sea Catholic Church for funeral services this morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Nicholas Habet, pastor. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Norfolk.

Noon services were held at the residence Thursday at 8 p.m.

David M. Fiddgen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Fiddgen, of 418 16th Street, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was sent to the Great Lakes, Ill., Training Center for a period of recruit training, according to Chief Petty Officer Julian A. Forbes, Navy Recruiter for the Beach and Princess Anne.

David graduated from Ocean High School with the class of 1949. He also attended the Danville Printing Trade School during the past winter. He was also employed in the mechanical department of the Virginia Beach News during the past summer.

KEMPSVILLE High School News
 Career Day at Kempsville
 Each year Kempsville High School sets aside one day which is devoted to the study of vocations and careers. Friday, March 16, was observed this year.
 The students select two fields in which they are most interested and meet with experts in these fields, who discuss with them such questions as: What are the requirements or qualifications needed for this; what high school courses will be most beneficial; what are the opportunities for advancement; what salary may I expect; and where may I get the specialized training in this field?
 During the assembly period the Rev. P. Rowland Wagner, of the Central Baptist Church, Norfolk, conducted the devotional services.
 Lucian Gunter, president of the student body, welcomed the visitors, and F. W. Cox, superintendent of Princess Anne County schools, and J. W. Littleton, principal of Kempsville High School, spoke briefly.
 The services, trades, business, collegiate and professional fields represented were:
 Airline hostess: Mrs. Carroll Boudie, Virginia Beach.
 Army and Air Forces: Capt. James Wertsberger and Sgt. Holt of the Norfolk Recruiting Station.
 Beauty culture: Miss Margaret Hicks and H. L. Duke, of Duke's Beauty School, Norfolk.
 Commercial work: Mrs. Helen Shafer, National Business College, Roanoke, and L. L. Key, of the Coastal Business College, Norfolk.
 Commercial art: Miss M. Paula Mallory, of the W. & M. Extension, and Mr. Wagner.
 Dramatics: Mrs. Seawright Wade, of Mary Washington College.
 Engineering and drafting: Edwin White and Lee Klinefelter, of the W. & M. Extension.
 Fashion modeling and designing: Mrs. John Hofheimer, of Person's, Inc., Virginia Beach.
 Home economics: Miss Fern Staggs, of Longwood College.
 Marines: T-Sgt. Neil Kinnear, USMC Recruiting Station, Norfolk.
 Mechanics and air conditioning: Edward Pare, of the W. & M. Technical Institute.
 Medicine: Dr. Neuroth, of the Medical College of Virginia.
 Music: Charles Vogel, of the music department of W. & M.
 Navy and Coast Guard: Julian Forbes, QMC, USN, Navy Recruiting Station, Norfolk.
 Nursing and laboratory technician: Miss Mary Bell, RN, and Miss Eileen Hurley, RN, of De Paul Hospital School of Nursing, and Miss Anne Pollok, RN, of the University of Virginia School of Nursing.
 Radio-electronics: B. C. Dickenson and L. W. Webb, of the William and Mary Extension.
 Retailing: Miss Ann Paul, of W. O. Swartz Co., Miss Clara Brichter and Mrs. Agnes Easterling, of Rice's Department Store, and Miss Katherine Sawyer, of Sears, Roebuck and Co.
 Teaching: Dr. George Oliver, of the College of William and Mary.
 Telephone: Mrs. Sylvia Fascetti, of the C. & P. Telephone Co.
 Apprentice trades: B. L. Valentine and C. W. Graves, of the Norfolk Apprentice School, Department of Labor.
 After the group meetings were ended the guests were entertained at a luncheon in the home economics department of the school.

Slim And His "Ali Species"
 Slim Baker, who's always doing something crazy, had a lot of people smiling last week because his entry was a ribbon in the Women's Club Annual Pet Show.
 Seems as though Slim saw a strange-colored alley cat with no tail over at Central City and brought it home. He washed, combed, and brushed it and put a collar on it with a card reading "Ali Species." Then he enters it in the show.
 Hanged if the ladies didn't think it was some rare kind of cat and gave it a special award! When one of them asked Slim where she could get one like it, he said, "It's all yours, M'am—I can get an 'Ali Cat' anytime I want it!"
 From where I sit, some of us are pretty easily "taken in" just because someone else says it's so. Whether it's awarding prizes or passing judgment on a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer—let's take a good look from stem to stern, and learn what it's all about before making up our minds.

MERCURY WINS AGAIN IN MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN!

1951 MERCURY WITH OVERDRIVE IS DECLARED "ECONOMY CAR OF ITS CLASS"

New 1951
MERCURY
 Nothing like it on the road!

MERCURY with Touch-O-Matic Overdrive again takes first prize in Class "C" in the Mobilgas Economy Run! Proving its pound-for-pound gasoline economy, this sleek Mercury scored amazing 59.568 m.p.g. performance over a grueling 840-mile course staked out by the American Automobile Association. Virtually every kind of weather and road condition—7,000-foot ice-ridden mountain passes...sweating, sand-swept roads of Death Valley—put the car to the test. But still, the new 1951 Mercury delivered the best ton-mile gasoline economy of any car in its class. That's something to think about when you buy a 1951 car. It's good to know that the new 1951 Mercury can save you money for years to come, no matter where you drive! As if this amazing economy weren't enough, Mercury also offers new styling that's more than just skin deep. New riding comfort that's designed to give you a smoother ride longer. New value that can't be surpassed by any car on the road today! Once again the facts have proved it—the new 1951 Mercury is "the buy of your life!" See it today in our showroom.

 *For "the drive of your life," Mercury offers you a triple choice in transmissions. Merc-O-Matic Drive, the new, smoother, more efficient automatic transmission—or thrifty Touch-O-Matic Overdrive are optional at extra cost. There's also standard synchromesh standard transmission.

In Appreciation

We, the Girl Scouts of Troop 201, Oceana, wish to take this opportunity to thank all who have in any way shown interest in the troop and its project of repairing the Girl Scout cabin. Also all who have helped in the collection of waste paper and magazines; have bought Girl Scout cookies, calendars and Christmas cards; and especially do we thank Mr. Paul Gallup and his friends, who have so generously of their time and efforts in helping to make our dream come true—that of a Scout Cabin of which we can be proud. We can't say that we are proud of the yard and exterior of the cabin at this time, but we are proud of our new knotty pine walls, new green draperies, and new stove given us by Mr. Maurice McKenney, which has kept us so warm and cozy this winter. We hope in the not too distant future to be able to say that we are proud, too, of the outside of the cabin and yard, but more waste paper will have to be collected in order that this may be realized.

On March 12, the birthday of Girl Scouting, we were honored by a visit from Miss Jean Baldwin, who turned our meeting into a party with movies, games and singing. Cookies and candies, made by the Girl Scouts who were working on the Cook Badge, were served. Our hats off to Miss Baldwin. We think we are very fortunate in having her and hope she will soon visit us again.

In closing this article, the leaders of Troop 201 would like to state that they are extremely proud of their girls. Collecting waste paper and magazines is hard work for girls of ten and eleven, but the Scouts of Troop 201 feel that what is worth having is worth working for and that Scouting is not all play, but a combination of play, work, learning, and last, but not least, doing a good turn daily.

—Anne Macon.

The undersigned having qualified as Administrator of the Estate of GEORGE GORDON SCOBIE, deceased, it is requested that all payments due to the decedent and all claims against the decedent, duly certified, be presented as soon as possible at Trust Department, National Bank of Commerce of Norfolk, Main Street, Norfolk, Virginia.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE OF NORFOLK, Administrator of the Estate of George Gordon Scobie, deceased. 3-23-3c

JULIA R. MARCHANT, Plaintiff v. DAVID W. BURNS and JOAN MARCHANT BURNS, Defendants

The object of the above styled suit is for the said plaintiff to obtain an attachment against real property owned by defendants located on Salem Road, Princess Anne County, Virginia, which is described as follows:

All that certain tract or parcel of land, with the improvements thereon, situated in Seaboard Magisterial District in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, known, and designated as "Tract A," containing twenty (20) acres, more or less, as shown on a certain plat entitled "Division of Farm made for J. M. Therser, south side of Salem Road," made by W. B. Gallup, County Surveyor, September 15, 1948, and more particularly described in accordance with said plat as follows:

Beginning at a point on the southern side of Salem Road where the western line of said Tract A intersects said Salem Road; thence running along the southern side of Salem Road South 37 degrees 13 minutes East 89.9 feet to a pipe and South 29 degrees 00 minutes East 124.7 feet to another pipe in the Western line of Tract B; thence along the Western line of Tract B, South 30 degrees 00 minutes West 1346.1 feet to a point; thence North 63 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence South 30 degrees West 220 feet to a point; thence North 63 degrees 00 minutes East 312.5 feet to an elm; thence North 22 degrees 30 minutes East 935 feet to a poplar; thence North 51 degrees 30 minutes East 289.5 feet to a sweet gum; thence North 87 degrees 45 minutes East 45.3 feet to a pipe; thence South 61 degrees 10 minutes East 92.4 feet to a pipe; thence South 43 degrees 01 minutes East 50.2 feet to a pipe; and thence North 83 degrees 06 minutes East 52.2 feet to the point of beginning; (said property also being shown on a certain other plat entitled "survey for Vernon B. Lee, southside of Salem Road," made by C. R. McIntire, Eng., October 8, 1943, and recorded in Map Book 15, page 22, in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia), upon the grounds that the defendants have removed from this State with intent to change their residence.

And affidavit having been made that the defendants are not residents of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that they do appear here within ten (10) days after due publication hereof, and do what may be necessary to protect their interest in this suit.

WILLIAM F. HUDGINS, Clerk By L. S. BELTON, Deputy Clerk Preston P. Taylor, p.q. 3-16-4f

v. SHIRLEY DI MAMBO (also sometimes known as Shirley Ann Di Mambro) and EDWARD ANTHONY DI MAMBO, Defendants

The object of the above styled suit is to satisfy a debt due by the Defendants to the Plaintiff, and to subject the following property of the Defendants, located in Princess Anne County, to the satisfaction thereof, which is described as follows:

1. All that certain tract, piece or parcel of land in the Seaboard Magisterial District, in the County of Princess Anne, State of Virginia, containing 3-7/10 acres, more particularly bounded and described in accordance with plat of "Property of H. W. Hewitt, located near London Bridge, in Princess Anne County, Va.," made by W. B. Gallup, County Surveyor, dated October 6, 1948, and to be recorded.

Beginning at a point on the eastern side of Swamp Road to London Bridge at the center of a culvert over a lead ditch crossing said road, being the southwestern corner of the J. L. Shipp Farm at the line of Oakville Wright; thence along said road N. 17 deg. 37 min. E. 440.1 feet to a pin; thence leaving said road and along the center of a ditch S. 75 deg. 53 min. E. 504.7 feet to a point marked by a pin at the intersection of another ditch; thence along said last mentioned ditch S. 50 deg. 13 min. W. 303.6 feet, and S. 11 deg. 04 min. W. 128.8 feet to a pin at the intersection of the lead ditch hereinbefore mentioned; thence along said lead ditch N. 86 deg. 14 min. W. 365.7 feet to the point of beginning. Being the same property that was conveyed to Shirley Di Mambro by deed of Henry W. Hewitt dated November 8, 1948, recorded in Deed Book 264, page 295, in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia.

2. All the undivided 3/4 interest in and to that piece or parcel of land, lying, situate and being in the County of Princess Anne, in the State of Virginia, containing 33.0306 acres, as shown by a survey called "Plat of Portion of William A.
